

Gage's Fiction Series.

"Two Men O' Mendip."

By Walter Raymond - - Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 50c.

READY MARCH 10TH

A tale of Lorna Doon's Country. This is a pathetic story of Western England, in which the wild lawlessness of the miners is directly contrasted with the quiet home existence of the farming community. The characters of these simple-minded folk are drawn with humor and acuteness.

"As a Man Sows."

By William Westall - - Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75c.

READY MARCH 15TH

Of Mr. Westall's previous work the "Speaker" says: "It is not too much to say that it is a book which places Mr. Westall in the first rank of living writers. It is brilliantly told. We believe that all reading this healthy and fascinating story will agree with us in our opinion of its merits."

"Hugh Gwyeth: A Roundhead Cavalier."

By Beulah Marie Dix - - Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75c.

READY MARCH 20TH

This is a capital stirring novel of war and adventure which has the double advantage of appealing, not only to adults, but also to the youth and mature girl. It is a well constructed plot, and the story interest is increasingly strong, which quality is almost a supreme test of good fiction. The period is that of Charles I., as the title shows. The characters of the story are clear-cut, well sustained and with interesting individuality, while the novel itself is emphatically one of action and incident. Its atmosphere, its color and phrasing all belong to those great years in English History which witnessed the struggle between Cromwellian and Stuart forces.
