

terly reckless of the shower of lead and some two or three fellows, leaping at their heads, dashed out to recognize him. Great was the sergeant's surprise, though, when he recognized in the stranger the woman in Grey. But there was no time for inquiry...

In the meanwhile Sergeant Leary had convinced himself that this Mr. Jones was not that Mr. Jones; the stranger instead of wielding a yatagan, employed a far more dangerous weapon in a pair of the most lovely eyes ever seen. Then in a most seductive voice (Leary swore afterwards that he understood every word, but don't believe him) she asked after her father's welfare...

HOW PROTESTANTS UNDERSTAND ST. PAUL'S QUESTION.

"HOW CAN THEY PREACH UNLESS THEY BE SENT." We have long waited says the Pittsburgh Catholic, for some well authenticated Protestant view of the "Holy Ministry," of "ecclesiastical vocation;" but we must confess that the most perfect and truthful that we have ever met with, is given by the World's Crisis, as unfolded below...

"GO PREACH." By what authority dost thou these things, and who gave you this authority? Matt. xxi. 23 Character No. 1.—(Soliloquy).—"I am young. The world is now before me. I must choose some business and enter upon it to obtain a livelihood. What has nature fitted me for? To dig? To toil and sweat and soil my hands, and furrow my face, and curb my intellect? To be one of the common herd?

No, never! Debasing thought! Nature has given me higher powers, and calls me to fill a higher position. My academic pathway had been strewn with laurels. The world has thus far acknowledged my abilities, and the wave of popularity will buoy me up if I only trust it. Give me then a profession.

He decides upon the ministry. Because the position will give him a greater scope in belles lettres. Because it suits his poetical aspirations. Because the style of pulpit oratory is his peculiar forte. He graduates after a seven years collegiate and theological course. He receives his parchment certifying to this. He seeks a field of labour. His salary and position must be according to his natural abilities. Twelve hundred dollars must be the first, and a city residence the last. He tenders his services to fill a vacancy of this kind. They invite him to preach a trial sermon. For this purpose he enters the house on the following Sunday, and seats himself on the softly-cushioned sofa of the minister's desk. His eye glances at the splendid adornments of the room. He listens to the music of the organ and well-trained choir. He sees the rich apparel and jewelry of his hearers. He feels the influence of the softened sunlight thro' the stained windows. He rises to speak. Behold his classic features! What symmetry and grace in his motions! What a richly toned voice! How beautiful are his comparisons! Milton, Shakespeare, Byron—how readily and correctly he quotes them!

Monday comes. The committee call upon him. They express themselves well pleased with his effort. The audience were delighted. Several wealthy men of the congregation had expressed their readiness to open their purses in case he remains.—Therefore they give him a call. And who could question their right to give him a call, and his right to accept it? Could they not show the church record to prove their appointment to office, and could not he produce his parchment as his authority to preach? Character No. 2.—A young man similarly situated to "No. 1." He witnesses his success, and reasons with himself on his own ability to follow in the former's footsteps. He recalls the popular maxims—what man has done can do—"where there's a will there's a way"—"a life is what we make it," &c. He determines to try. He goes through a similar course of study and receives a similar parchment roll. Keeping his predecessors course in mind he seeks a similar position. He goes from one city or borough to another and preaches his trial sermon but to no avail. He is not qualified to please the elite. He is too common-place. He is too prosy to attract an audience. Messrs. A. and B. wealthy members of the congregation, want a smarter man. Finally he settles in the country on $600 salary, and they call him only because they can't afford to pay for a smarter man. If they could they would. His authority to preach is unquestionable, but every man in his own sphere.—Crisis.

A JAW-BREAKER.—We were lately engaged in rummaging through a heap of books in divers foreign tongues in, as it is proved, the vain hope of meeting with something of sufficient agronomic interest to warrant us presenting it to the readers of the Agricultural Review. We, however, discovered the following word, than which the hardest nut that ever contained the germ of an oak or a hazel could not prove a more effectual jaw-breaker. We present it to our readers gratuitously—"Steuerverweigerungseerfussunzsmässigberechtigt."

This lengthy name is applied to a man who is exempt by the constitution from the payment of taxes. We wish we were a Steuer-Agricultural Review.

FRANKLIN HOUSE, (Corner of King and William Streets,) MONTREAL, IS NOW OPEN. And under the MANAGEMENT of JOHN RYAN. Mr. Ryan would say to the Friends of this very popular House, that it has been NEWLY FURNISHED not only in part, but throughout; and that it intends to conduct it as a FIRST-CLASS HOTEL; yet prices for transient guests, as well as regular Boarders, will be unchanged. Parties requiring Board, with Rooms, would find it to their advantage to try the Franklin.

OODOINE is a word invented and adopted by Messrs. Joseph Burnett & Co. as the name of their celebrated Hair Preparation. From well attested instances and strong testimonials in its favour, there is no doubt but that Dr. Burnett has succeeded in producing an article of great superiority. It possesses all the important properties of a perfect hair dressing, and is believed to be the cheapest in use.—Bridgeport Republican.

TO DYSPÉPTIC, and all who suffer the tortures which this disease inflicts in one form or another of its many phases, cure yourselves permanently and speedily by using THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.

The Weekly Novelté of Sept. 18, says: "Dyspepsia is one of the prevailing diseases of our country. This is owing both to climate and the almost universal habit of eating our meals too rapidly to admit of proper digestion. But in spite of these adverse circumstances, this disease, even when it has become chronic, disappears rapidly by the use of the Oxygenated Bitters, which have been found to prove an infallible remedy."

(From the Publisher of a widely circulated Magazine.) Boston, July 1, 1858. Messrs. W. S. FOWLE & Co.—I have taken three bottles of the Oxygenated Bitters, and have derived great benefit from their use. I have been much troubled with Dyspepsia for several years, and found nothing that afforded me any relief until I used the Bitters. I most cheerfully recommend them to all who are afflicted with this troublesome and stubborn complaint.

JAMES ROBINSON, of the "Student and Schoolmate." From Gen. A. C. DODGE, our Minister to Spain. WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.

Dr. Geo. B. Green—Dear Sir—The Oxygenated Bitters with which you were so kind as to furnish me, have had a most salutary effect in my case. I was troubled with Dyspepsia for four years, during which time I tried many remedies, but never met with any so good as your Bitters. I am now in the enjoyment of good health, and I hope, and believe, that all who use the Oxygenated Bitters, will find them as serviceable as I have found them.

With high respect, your obt. servant. A. C. DODGE. Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO. Boston; and for Sale, at Wholesale, by Lyman, Savage & Co.; Carter, Kerry & Co.; S. J. Lyman, and by Druggists generally.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla, FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, And for the speedy cure of the subjoined varieties of disease: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blisters, and all Skin Diseases. OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1859. J. C. AYER & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it burst out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward, and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and disgusting beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was obliged to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that my thing you made must be good. I sent to Cleveland and got a bottle, and used it till cured. It is as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. Now and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off, and now clear and healthy skin. I know by my feelings that the disease is gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours, ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Egg Spings, Better and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy. Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 26th Sept. 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which he completely removed from a patient, by the persevering use of your Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous attack of Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Eruptions by its constant use. Bronchocele, Goitre, or Swelled Neck. Zephon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three weeks since your Sarsaparilla cured my Goitre, a horrible swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years." Zephon Sloan or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases. Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I am so perfectly cured of your Sarsaparilla, that I am saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous kind. I have cured many cases of Leucorrhoea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing with my knowledge equals it for those female derangements." Edward S. Mansfield, of Newbury, Athol, writes: "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely cured by your extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extraction could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks the symptoms of the disease remained." Syphilis and Mercurotic Disease. NEW ORLEANS, 6th August, 1859. Dr. J. C. AYER, Sir: I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the cures I have realized with your Sarsaparilla. I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints which are usually treated with mercury, and I can truly say, that the cure of Venereal and Mercurotic Disease, is one of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in the throat, which were consuming his palate and the base of his tongue, and he had lost his voice. He had been in bed five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had become very considerable in part of it, so that I believe the Sarsaparilla could save his nose, his brain and his life. But yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla, the ulcer healed, and he is well again, not of course without cessation of the use of the Sarsaparilla. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from this poison in her blood. They had become so swollen that she could not get out of bed. She had been suffering with her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I can truly say that your Sarsaparilla is a most valuable medicine, and that your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me. Fraternal yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint. INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859. Dr. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than I was when I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM. Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which threatened my health. I tried every thing and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Eddy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because of its purifying and blood-purifying you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement of Uterus, Cervix, and Exfoliation of the Bones. A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit of their recital. Some of the cases are given in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them. Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia. Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alternative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, FOR THE RAPID CURE OF Croup, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients, in advanced stages of the Disease. This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is unnecessary to publish the evidence of its efficacy. It is a simple, safe, and pleasant medicine, and its truly remarkable cures of pulmonary disease, have made it famous throughout the civilized nations of the earth. It is the commonwealth, or even families, among them that have not some persons who are afflicted with this afflicting trophy in their midst of its victory over the most dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. Know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and know, too, the effect of this remedy, we need not say that you can assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have been so strongly upon the confidence of mankind. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Lyman, Savage, & Co., at Wholesale and Retail; and by all the Druggists in Montreal, and throughout Upper and Lower Canada.
