

This entire set of problems should be taken in hand, in the first place, by the RSFSR Ministry of Automobile Transport, and also by the USSR Goskomtrud (State Labour Commission). In any event, we must finally come up with a system that would banish "sham" tons and "pencilled-in" kilometres from our everyday practice.

Trud

6 October 88

P. 2 (full text)