

ANNEX IV

Assistance, on request, relating to surveillance

At the request of the Customs administration of a Contracting Party, the Customs administration of another Contracting Party shall, to the extent of its competence and ability, maintain special surveillance for a specified period over :

- (a) the movements, particularly the entry into and exit from its territory, of particular persons reasonably believed to be professionally or habitually engaged in Customs offences in the territory of the requesting Contracting Party;
- (b) movements of particular goods which are reported by the Customs administration of the requesting Contracting Party as giving rise to important illicit traffic towards or from the territory of that Contracting Party;
- (c) particular places where stocks of goods have been built up, giving reason to assume that they are to be used for illicit importation into the territory of the requesting Contracting Party;
- (d) particular vehicles, ships, aircraft or other means of transport reasonably believed to be used to commit Customs offences in the territory of the requesting Contracting Party, and shall communicate a report thereon to the Customs administration of the requesting Contracting Party.
