

dried, and then placed in a drier, which completes the process. The normal charge is 35 cents for washing eight or nine pounds of clothes, and 25 cents for drying.

(g) Barbers and beauty parlours

Barbers have a separate price for each item of service, indicated on a schedule posted in the shop. A haircut usually costs about $5.00. Beauty parlours vary in price for services, including shampoos, permanents and manicures. A shampoo and set costs at least $5.00. Tips of 10-15 per cent (minimum 25 cents) are expected. Some barbers have had no experience in cutting the hair of customers from countries in Africa, Asia and the West Indies, and may refuse to cut your hair for this reason. If you have difficulty, ask other students to recommend a barber who can cut your hair.

(h) Postal facilities and communications

Letters: The regular rate for letters and postcards within Canada is eight cents, and such mail is sent by air when appropriate. For information about rates for letters to other countries, you should inquire at a post-office. Special airmail letter-forms (aerograms) may be purchased for 20 cents and sent to any country. Every city has a main post-office downtown and a number of district post-offices. Stamps may be purchased in many drug-stores and cigar-stores and in many hotels. When changing your address, ask at the post-office for a change-of-address card, which will ensure that your mail will be rerouted to your new address. These cards are free and can also be sent to your family and friends to notify them of a change of address.

Telephone: Directions on how to make a call are given in the front of the telephone directory. Public telephones are to be found in booths on the street and in hotels, as well as in many drug-stores, cigar-stores, and restaurants. There is no charge for local calls made from private telephones, or any limit to the length of the call. Special reduced rates are in effect in the evening and on weekends for calls between certain provinces and for cross-Canada calls after midnight.

Long-distance calls from private and office telephones can, if the numbers to be called are listed, be made by dialling direct. Calls that require the assistance of an operator, such as those made from pay-telephones, can be placed either person-to-person or station-to-station. In the latter type of call, which is less expensive, you agree to speak to anyone who answers; in person-to-person calls, you specify the person to whom you wish to speak and pay nothing if
