

- (3) That, should any merchandise carried, in the aircraft in question, from one country to the other in the course of such search or rescue, remain in the latter country on conclusion of an operation, such merchandise will be subject to the customs treatment normally accorded in that country to imported merchandise.

"3. The term "public aircraft", as used in this note, refers to aircraft of the Canadian and United States Governments and such other aircraft of United States and Canadian registry as may be brought under the control of a rescue coordination centre in either country for the purposes of an emergency search or rescue operation."

In reply I have the honor to inform your Excellency that the Government of the United States concurs in the foregoing proposals and agrees that your Excellency's note and this reply shall be regarded as constituting an agreement between our two Governments that is to be effective from this date and shall remain in force until sixty days after either party to the agreement has signified to the other a desire to terminate it.

Accept, Excellency, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

James E. Webb

His Excellency

H.H. Wrong,

Ambassador of Canada.
