

Coupland Lecture on the Irish Controversy

HALES CROFT, KIDLINGTON,
OXON,
KIDLINGTON 15.

4th November 1932.

My dear Currie,

The writer of the enclosed letter is Professor Coupland, Beit Professor of Colonial History at Oxford. He happens to be an absolutely first-rate lecturer with a gift for holding his audience. You may possibly care to avail yourself of his suggestion.

*Yours very sincerely
D. Curtis*

General Sir Arthur Currie, GCMG., KCB.,
McGill University,
Montreal,
Canada.