

At the Annual Meeting the Executive Committee shall report as called for in the Constitution; the nomination of officers shall be made for the ensuing year, in writing during the first half hour of the meeting; the presiding officer of the meeting shall then declare the nominations for the respective offices closed, and voting shall proceed. In case of a tie the Presiding Officer shall decide.

The quorum at such meeting shall consist of twenty five members in good standing. In all questions submitted to vote by show of hands the majority shall rule, and in case of a tie the Presiding Officer shall decide.

SUB-COMMITTEES.

The Executive Committee of the Club shall appoint the following sub-committees, a House Committee, a Finance Committee, a Speaker's Committee, a Reception Committee and a Literary Committee, of at least seven members each, of which the majority in each shall be selected from the Executive Committee. The others may be selected from the members of the Club.

DUTIES OF COMMITTEES.

The House Committee shall have the oversight and regulation of the Club premises, the fixing of the hours at which any meetings not specially provided for in the Constitution and By-laws shall take place, and the fee to be charged for the use of the Club Rooms. They shall also have the oversight and control of the employees of the Club, and shall investigate all complaints made against any employee or attendant of the Club, with power to suspend such employee or attendant, and report to the Executive Committee, and to engage a competent successor or successors in the interim. They shall order all ordinary daily supplies, and shall report to the Executive Committee when any improvement of a permanent nature or the purchase of furniture is deemed necessary.
