

is measured by the liberty of its minority. That is to say if a minority is not well treated it is not it alone which suffers as all those of the majority who have a right spirit, a just and generous heart suffer with the minority and to the same extent as it does.

"We must not, Mr. Speaker, forget the good qualities of others, we must remember that it is due to the combined qualities of all groups and of all races in the Dominion that our country has become great.

"Let us preserve, yes, Mr. Speaker, let us preserve intact our field of action and guard against even dreaming of diminishing the great task it is our mission to continue. Let us in the accomplishment of that task be inspired by the courage, by the faith, by the ideals of our ancestors, the discoverers of this country and the splendid visions of the Fathers of Confederation and thanks to our work, to our efforts and to our sacrifices the 20th century will count our country amongst the great nations of the earth."
