

PREFACE

Further issues of this pamphlet seem to be welcomed and we should like to have more material from which to choose for future numbers. While many of the letters cover ground which has already been dealt with we should like to choose contributions from as broad a field as possible in view of the human interest and value the pamphlets will have not only now but in the future.

The words "Great European War" in our sub-title now hardly seem sufficiently comprehensive so we have changed them to read "Great War".

As before, a completely revised list of those who have taken up military duty, together with a revised Honour Roll and Casualty List prefaces the letters.
