

- 46. Every society shall supply gratuitously to every member or other person interested in the funds of the society on his application, or as provided by the rules of the society, a copy of the last annual balance sheet and return of the society. Balance sheet to be furnished gratuitously.
- 5 47. Save as provided in this Act, no member or person shall have any right to inspect the books of the society, notwithstanding anything in the existing rules relating to such inspection. Inspection of books.
- 10 2. Any member or other person having an interest in the funds of the society may inspect his own account and the books containing the names of the members at all reasonable hours at the registered office of the society, or at such other place where they are kept, subject to such regulations as to time and manner of such inspection as are made by the rules. When accounts and lists may be inspected.
- 15 3. The society may, by its rules, authorize the inspection of any of its books therein mentioned, in addition to the said books containing the names of members, under such conditions as are thereby imposed, so that no person, unless he is an officer of the society or is specially authorized by a resolution thereof, shall have the right to inspect the loan or deposit account of any other member without his consent. Rules for inspection under conditions imposed therein.
- 20 48. Every dispute not of a pecuniary character, and every dispute of a pecuniary character in which the amount involved or in dispute does not exceed one hundred dollars, between a member of a society or any person aggrieved who has for not more than six months ceased to be a member of the society, or any person claiming through such member or person aggrieved, or claiming under the rules of the society, and the society or an officer thereof, shall be decided in the manner directed by the rules of the society, if they contain any such directions, and the decision so made shall be binding and conclusive on all parties without appeal, and shall not be removable into any court of law or restrainable by injunction; and application for the enforcement thereof may be made before any court of competent jurisdiction. Disputes between members decided according to rules.
- 25 49. The Minister may, if he thinks fit, on the application of ten members of a society each of whom has been a member of the society for not less than twelve months immediately preceding the date of the application, appoint an accountant to inspect the books of the society and to report thereon: provided that— No appeal.
- 30 (a) the applicants shall deposit with the Minister such sum as security for the costs of the proposed inspection as the Minister may require; Minister may order inspection of books.
- 35 (b) all expenses of and incidental to any such inspection shall be defrayed by the applicants, or out of the funds of the Security for costs.
- 45 Payment of expenses.