3. May a bill of exchange be drawn or accepted payable on a condition? What is the effect of a condition in either case?

4. Under what circumstances will non-presentation of a bill for payment be excused?

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of The Law Journal:

SIR,—Since the passing of The Indicture Act, I, who expect to appear for call, &c., next February, feel that I am one of those who "blindly grope." How will the change affect the Final Examinations? Will it be necessary to be up in Stephens' Chancery Pleading? Will we be examined in the old practice of the courts, or the new, or both? Will Taylor's Equity continue one of the subjects? In a word, upon what subjects will we be examined?

By answering these questions you will greatly oblige,

Yours, &c.,
G. S. L. S.

April 6th, 1881.

[Our correspondent will see the answer to his question by referring to the advertisement in No. 6 of this Journal. Notice will be given of any change.—ED. L. F.]

DEATH OF JUDGE MACDONALD.

At a meeting of members of the Bar of the County of Wellington the following resolutions were passed:

"That the members of the Bar of the County of Wellington have heard with sorrow of the decease of Archibald Macdonald, Esq., late Judge of the County Court of Wellington, who for the period of twenty-four years efficiently performed the onerous duties of that position; and we desire to record our feelings of deep regret at the great loss not only we but the public have sustained in his death:

That as a mark of our respect for the memory of the late Judge Macdonald, the members of the Bar do attend his funeral in a body, and wear the customary mourning for the period of thirty days:

That we tender to the bereaved family of the late Judge Macdonald our heartfelt condolence in this hour of their affliction and that a copy of the foregoing resolutions be transmitted by the secretary to the family of the late Judge."
