THE FLAG

The flag pictures the vision of a people whose eyes are turned toward the rising dawn. It represents the hope of a father for his posterity. It is never flaunted for the glory of royalty, but to be born under it is to be a child of a king and to establish a home under it is to be the founder of a royal house.

The only M.P. of any overseas parliament to win the V.C., was Col. Peck, of B.C.
