

and elsewhere:—

the first magnitude against nation calculated in my sojourning through this my introducing (in the
of an original Letter
JOSEPH LEIGH.

October 1795—39.

Wishers you were pleased you my hearty thanks
ably for your zealous
and Eternal truths of ou,—but the Divine
lieve me my dear sir,
er pleasure than your ord for patience and this earth when the e Glory, Honor and
th; You and I may be comforting reflec-
s, to make known the
ely with you that the eping a way for the molishing the powers
indeed surprised that should so strenuously rench nation. For I and the happiness of
ery and oppression of show itself to be that ee and liberty, proved tially necessary to the ortant blessing, name-
ine truths as now revens. This will con-
and in proportion as ely believe wars will
and friendship; and many ages past it has the ultimates of crea-
that pride, selfishness, church will transform
human nature, and a
Yours, &c. J. G."
H.