

ing our souls to the influence of this perfect and absolute personality. Nay, as Jesus Christ was perfect man, so also, and for that very reason, was He the revelation and realization of the Divine Father. In the new dispensation of spirit, as in the old of dogma, He must, therefore, in some sense, if not the orthodox sense, continue to be our Mediator and Saviour.