

Belcher's Farmer's Almanack, 1863.

Sold at the City Book Stores and by the Storekeepers generally, throughout Nova Scotia and Cape Breton.

The bound and interleaved copies contain a fine Engraving of His (late) ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE CONSORT.

Messrs. A. & W. Mackinlay will promptly attend to and execute all orders for the above.

C. H. BELCHER,
Publisher and Proprietor.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK for 1862, is before us. The present issue equals those of preceding years—containing an accurate and comprehensive calendar for every month in the year, besides a large amount of interesting and valuable information on all Provincial subjects of utility."—Cape Breton News.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK.—We have received from the Publisher a copy of this Almanack for 1862, which is well filled with useful information that we all require to know and use."—St. John, N. B., Morning News.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK FOR 1862.—We are reminded by an order for a number of copies of this valuable Almanack, received from England, that we have neglected to notice it before. Any comment on its merits, however, are needless. It has been long and satisfactorily tested in previous years."—Acadian Recorder.

"We have received a copy of Belcher's Almanack for 1862, which fully maintains its well earned reputation."—Provincial Wesleyan.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK for 1862 has been received from the Publisher, and we are pleased to observe that this favorite Annual still continues to exhibit most fully those features which have always secured for it so large and well-merited a share of public favor. The present volume contains a large amount of additional matters of interest, and we observe that the lists of Public Institutions, Societies and Officers have been thoroughly revised."—Pictou Colonial Standard.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK FOR 1862.—We have received a copy of this excellent annual, and cordially welcome it as an old friend. The character of this periodical is so well known than any lengthy notice of its contents would be superfluous. As heretofore it contains everything requisite and necessary for an Almanack."—British Colonist.

"* * * Belcher' is also out early this year, and appears to sustain its well earned reputation as a reliable and well filled work."—Eastern Chronicle.

"BELCHER'S FARMER'S ALMANACK.—We have neglected to notice the receipt from the Publisher of Belcher's Farmer's Almanack for 1862.—This favourite annual continues to keep up its well earned reputation as a reliable work, and is, as usual, well filled with correct lists of all our public institutions—Officers of the Army and Navy and Volunteers, and a large amount of valuable information."—Halifax Evening Express.