

Whilst sketching the peculiarities of the country, its soil, climate, and marvellous wealth in gold, I have introduced a mass of information interesting to the general reader, in the hope of rendering the volume worthy of a favourable reception.

D. G. F. M.

PARLIAMENT STREET, LONDON, SW.:
June 1852.