

CHAPTER X.

MISSIONS IN THE MEDITERRANEAN.

GIBRALTAR.—Commencement of the mission—Labors and death of several missionaries—Mr. Stenson's account of the mission—His latest report,.....	199, 200	sion of a Mahometan lady—Death of Henry Salt, Esq.—Last account of the mission,.....	202—204
MALTA.—The peculiar situation of this island—Commencement of the mission—Opposition—Last accounts of the station,.....	201, 202	ZANTE.—Description of the island—Labors of Mr. Lowndes—Commencement of the Wesleyan mission—Letter from Dr. Bralloblotzky—Extracts from Mr. Croggon's journal—Committee's report—Death of Mrs. Croggon,.....	204—206
ALEXANDRIA.—Reasons for undertaking this mission—Extracts from the journal of the missionary—Conver-

CHAPTER XI.

MISSIONS IN EUROPE.

SWEDEN.—Remarks of the committee—Labors of Mr. Stephens—State of the mission,.....	207	Ouseley.—Dr. Coke's address—State of the mission—Schools,.....	208—210
FRANCE.—Origin and state of the mission,.....	207, 208	THE NORMAN ISLES,.....	210
GERMANY,.....	208	WALES,.....	210
IRELAND.—Account of Thomas Walsh—Dr. Coke originates the mission—Extract from an address of the Irish conference—Extract from a letter of Mr. Gideon		SHETLAND.—Labors of Mr. Nicholson—State of the mission,.....	211
		A compendium of the Wesleyan missions—State of the schools,.....	211, 212

HISTORY OF THE SCOTTISH MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

CHAPTER I.

FORMATION OF THE SOCIETY AND ITS OPERATIONS IN AFRICA.

ORIGIN of the society—Missionaries sent to Sierra Leone—Labors of Brunton and Greig—Sickness of the missionaries—Account of Mr. Greig—He is cruelly murdered—Notice of Mr. Alexander—Publications in the Susoo language,.....	213—216
---	---------

CHAPTER II.

TARTARY.

THE mission established at Karass—Account of a Mahometan priest—Plague and war induce the missionaries to remove their station—Death of a number of the missionaries—The mission at Karass renewed—Account of Katagerry—Privileges of the mission—Message from a Souma prince—The mission meets with opposition—Death of Mr. Brunton—Publications—Favorable accounts of the mission,.....	216—221	from Drs. Pinkerton and Henderson—Last report of the station,.....	221—225
KARASS.—Division of the mission—Mr. Patterson's journey—Extract from his journal—Mr. Galloway's first and second visit to the Trukmen—Account of Seid Ouchli Mahomed—Notice of Shora—A seminary established at Astrachan—State of the mission—Visit		ORENBURG.—Commencement of this mission—Increase of laborers—The mission given up—Remarks of Allimburt,.....	225, 226
		NAZRAN,.....	226
		ASTRACHAN.—Description of the city—Commencement of the mission—Letter of Mr. Mitchell—Arrival of Mr. Glen—Opening of a chapel—Schools—Circulation of the Scriptures—Encouraging state of the mission—Ravages of the cholera—Distribution of the Scriptures,.....	226—229