Originated Garden School. ST. CATHARINES, Nov. 9.-Lincoln County lost one of its most efficient teachers late last night, when James Painter died at Jordan after a short siege of typhoid fever. The deceased was the originator of the school garden at Vineland, which was the best and most successful in Ontario. He was organist in Jordan Methodist. Church, and had been for some time secretary-treasurer of Lincoln County Teachers' Association.

Bell and Jones Found Guilty.

W. J. Bell and J. Gordon Jones were found guilty of several burderies in the jury assizes last evening. They are the men suspected of murdering the Streeteville Chinaman. A suggestion was made by H. C. McDonald, counsel for the defence, that

BIG SIGN IS DOWN

Fails With a Crash Just as Workmen Had Left Hobberlins.

The big sign is down. It fell with a avenue, an invalid, has been having a crash, and was splintered into kindling wood. Happily, it was at the time when the workmen employed on the new Hobberlin building, at the corner of Yonge and Richmond-streets, had gone for the day. Since the building began some weeks ago, the firm have utilized the space on the old wall with a huge sign giving the number of square feet that will be contained in the new Hobberlin tailor shops. The big figures 47,563 in red pain', denoting the increased space, could be seen from the corner of Queen-street. Pas-

"We're too busy now with this threedays overcoat display to think of the sign," said one of the staff yesterday, but don't worry, it'll be replaced. Just keep your eye on that corner and you'll see many interesting things."

DEATH FOR CONSPIRATORS.

TOKIO, Nov. 9 .- Twenty-seven persons have been found guilty of com-plicity in a plot to assassinate the Emperor of Japan, and the special court which tried them recommends that all be put to death.
