REMARKABLE GOLF AT LAMBTON CUMMINGS LEADS BY A STROKE

Score for the Day-Last Year's

Royal Canadian golf tourney. Eighteen holes were played in the morning, and eighteen in the afternoon, and when all the returns had been made, George Cummings of the Toronto Club was found to be high man, closely followed by Percy Barrett of Barrett in the morning, but the Lamb-ton man came back with a 73 in the afternoon, while Cummings got 74. Both these scores are excellent, and chances are to-day even this will be broken. Devid Black of Outremont is third, while Charlie Murray, last year's champion, is eleven strokes behind the leader. The feature of the match yesterday was W. J. Locke's 1 for the short (125). The special Lambton train will leave the Union Station at 1.30 to-day, and immediately on arrival the last eighteen holes will be played. The fol--Morning Round-
