 190 Yonge St. Canada's Greatest Store. Toronto.
 YONGE AND QUEEN STREETS, November 25, 1896.
 Store closed all day to-morrow—Thanksgiving!

The Focus For All Eyes!

There are big businesses everywhere that stand head and shoulders above the rest, and whenever dry goods men and manufacturers think of Toronto or Canada they immediately think of this store. That fact is important for two reasons:—It brings goods here to sell at prices below the market, and it brings shoppers here to take advantage of special buying chances. With plenty of goods and plenty of customers we need no argument for trade. The business is its own argument.

Whenever proof is needed we like nothing better than to point to the second floor and its Housefurnishings. Such variety in new goods and such prices for worthy goods are interesting enough to bring us trade from all over. We've a small army of salespeople up there and none of them are ever idle. We keep them all busy anticipating such wants as these:

- Heavy Wilton and Silk Brocade Furniture Coverings, 52 inches wide, new, artistic designs, in blue, blue and cream, regular price $12 a yard. On sale Friday..... 1.75

NIAGARA FALLS POWER IN BUFFALO.
 Buffalo street cars are now being moved by electric energy transmitted from Niagara Falls. In a short time its streets will be lighted by Niagara Falls current, and all its machinery will be turned by the same energy. At Niagara Falls itself industries of all kinds are springing into existence under the magic influence of this wonderful power. One of the latest proposals is the construction of an immense hotel, or rather palace, on the ground where the Cataract House and other buildings now stand. This hotel is to be the greatest thing of the kind in the world. If the design is carried out as proposed Niagara Falls will have a veritable electrical palace. The tourist traffic to the Falls is exceedingly large as it is. A palace of the kind suggested would in itself prove an attraction that would largely augment the number of visitors. While all these improvements are under way and in contemplation on the American side nothing is being done to give the Canadian side any share of the power. The company that produces the electric power that is the basis of these enterprises on the American side is the same one that controls the electric franchise in Canada. It has applied for an extension or modification of the franchise under which it enjoys an exclusive right to the power that is available on this side of the river. The company desire to tie up the power in Canada while they prosecute their enterprises on the other side. Against any such policy as this the Ontario Government should strongly protest.

TORONTO CONSERVATIVES.
 Mr. W. R. Brock Elected Honorary President and Mr. W. D. McPherson President.
 —A Presentation to Come.
 The adjourned annual meeting of the Conservative Association of Toronto was held last night at the Albany Club. There was a large attendance. The officers were all elected unanimously. Mr. W. R. Brock, president; W. D. McPherson, vice-president; Edmund Brantford, James Saunders, the new Executive Committee, secretary; and J. B. Macdonald, Mr. Brock (the retiring president) and Mr. Brock (the retiring secretary) were the secretaries of the association in the past. The question of adding a representative to the Executive Committee was referred to the Special Committee.

HAMILTON CIVIC MATTERS.
 A Long War of Words Over the Radial Railway Tracks—Disposal of the Carriers.
 Hamilton, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—At the Board of Works to-night the long-disputed question as to whether the Radial Railway should be permitted to remain on the side of the roadway on Sherman-street was referred to the centre of the roadway as provided by the by-law. The company contended it had authority of the late Mayor to place the tracks along the avenue claim that they are greatly damaged thereby, and that the Board, however, were of the opinion that the tracks should be removed. The discussion which followed was participated in by the Chairman, all the aldermen, the City Attorney and several of the aggrieved property-owners, the upshot of all being that the Board should visit the locality on Friday afternoon and confer with all the interested parties in an effort to effect a compromise of the situation.

A BROKEN AXLE
 Caused a Considerable Delay to Traffic Between Owen Sound and Toronto.
 Owen Sound, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—This coming in over the C.P.R. was particularly wrecked while coming down the road. The three hind cars were thrown from the rails by an axle of one of the cars giving way, and were considerably damaged. The accident has blocked the road between here and Toronto, this afternoon's express being unable to leave on that account, and will probably be cancelled. A wrecking train left here shortly after the accident occurred, and will no doubt have the road opened to allow the early morning train to leave as usual. No one was injured by the mishap.

TALMUD RITE REVIVED.
 Brownsville Jews Follow an Ancient Custom in Celebrating the Feast of Chanukah.
 New York, Nov. 24.—The orthodox Jews of Brownsville, Brooklyn, revived a custom last week that had been in disuse since the destruction of Jerusalem by Titus. This ancient custom is called Chanukah, and is celebrated by the lighting of a seven-branched candelabrum, known as the Menorah, which is done in a practical way, the grievance involves nothing of the kind. The grievance does not affect the conscience at all. It is a grievance affecting the pocket merely. The Catholics are not compelled to send their children to the parochial schools, or even to secular schools. The state provides such schools for the children of any parent who chooses to make use of them. The Catholics are free to use them or not, just as they please. If these schools are not sent to the parochial schools, it is not a matter of conscience at all. It is purely one of expense. And it is a matter of no great expense either if we confine the issue to Manitoba alone. If the people of Quebec feel so intensely for the spiritual welfare of the Catholic minority, why should they not contribute towards a fund for the establishment of parochial Catholic schools in that province? It is purely a question of money. Besides, it is a grievance affecting but an infinitesimal part of the population of Canada as a whole. It is surprising that so small a question should be allowed to create so much wrangling and mischief. The minority in Manitoba and their sympathizers in Quebec may as well make up their minds once for all that the judgment of the people as announced last election will stand. It is final. There will be no new trial.

THE POSTOFFICE AND EXPRESS COM.
 The Montreal Witness is of the same opinion as the World in regard to the necessity of reduced rates for the transmission of small parcels by express. It agrees with us, too, that the most feasible way to make the express companies reduce their rates is for the Government to extend and cheapen the parcels service of the Postoffice Department. In England the postoffice is an active competitor with the express companies in the delivery of parcels. The former has compelled the companies to reduce their rates to one-half of what they are in this country, as far as the parcels are concerned. The rate on parcels in Great Britain is six cents for the first pound, and three cents for each additional pound. A parcel weighing three pounds is transmitted by the postoffice to any part of the British Isles for twelve cents. The same sized parcel would be handled by an express company for 14 cents. Various Boards of Trade throughout the Dominion have recommended the Government to reduce the letter rate from 3 to 2 cents, but the means practically that such reduction would mean an addition to the deficit of three-quarters of a million dollars per annum. The increase in the number of letters in the United States some years ago has not been as large as was anticipated. The result of the experiment then does not exactly justify us in following it. While there may be doubt as to the expediency of reducing the rates on letters in Canada, there is no doubt whatever that the introduction of the British parcel system in Canada would be the means of largely increasing the revenue of the Postoffice Department. This branch would be more than self-sustaining, and the benefit that would accrue to the public would be immense. If the Government cannot reduce the letter rate, it can at least give us a cheap parcel delivery.

FORGED AND EMBEZZLED.
 A Prominent Physician of Farnham, Quebec, is in a Heap of Trouble and Admits His Guilt.
 Montreal, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—There was a sad sight in the Montreal Police Court to-day, when Dr. George Slack, of Farnham, and one of the best known practitioners in the province, appeared before Judge Desnoyers and pleaded guilty to the charge of forgery and embezzlement to the extent of $12,000. Dr. Slack was with his sister, Mrs. Montgomery, executor in his late brother-in-law's estate, and having forged that lady's power of attorney, he secured a large amount of Bank of Montreal stock, sold the same and appropriated it to his own use, hence his arrest by Detective Carpenter and a plea of guilty before the judge. Mr. George Slack was a most eloquent appeal. Dr. Slack made a most eloquent appeal, bearing over two thousand names, and also learned that restitution to a very large amount has been made. Judge Desnoyers will sentence the unfortunate man on Friday morning. Dr. Slack was the Conservative candidate in Missisquoi at the general election for the House of Commons.

ATTACKED BY HIGHWAYMEN.
 Driven a Wagon for Wilson & Co., the Soda Water Manufacturers, tells a tale of an attempted highway robbery. Last night, as he was driving in from Oakville, and near Lorne Park, his rig was stopped by two men, who demanded his money, and refused, and they assaulted him, giving him a severe beating. He made such a determined resistance that they gave up their fight and retreated. All he lost in the assault was his gunnysack.

DETECTIVE CARRYING FRANK KIEHL.
 Victim of Yesterday's Robbery on a Wreck Charging Him with the Theft of an Overcoat.
 Dr. J. C. McFarlane, 228 Clinton-street, who drives a wagon for Wilson & Co., the soda water manufacturers, tells a tale of an attempted highway robbery. Last night, as he was driving in from Oakville, and near Lorne Park, his rig was stopped by two men, who demanded his money, and refused, and they assaulted him, giving him a severe beating. He made such a determined resistance that they gave up their fight and retreated. All he lost in the assault was his gunnysack.

WESTON.
 Weston, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The employees of Robertson's Amusement Works, Toronto, spent a pleasant evening in the social dance at the Russell Hotel this evening.
 Several matters were amicably settled, each paying their own costs.
 Mr. McConnell, a former from near St. Catharines, has just returned from St. Ste. Marie, where he has been for the past few years. Mr. McConnell is interested in a gold mine in Algoma, and had made arrangements with a prospect to go to the mine when he was unexpectedly called back on business. Mr. McConnell says the whole country is full of valuable minerals.

OUTSIDE THE CITY LIMITS.
 The Junction School Board Meets at Last—Notes From Little York and Weston—That Prohibited Burial.
 While Liberal patronage has been shown all around the riding of East York, the faithful in it have so far received few of the glittering prizes. Now, however, the change comes, and papers have been made out for the installation in the postoffice building of both East York and Little York, and all the news of the day is to be gathered here. Among the group yesterday afternoon were Reeve Richardson, who is out as a candidate for Division 10 of the County Council, and Mr. Dan Baldwin, Scarborough school trustee, who during the County Council convention, the day before, was elected to the office of a member of the Board of Education. A large number of the group were out for a large section of Scarborough. It is not learned whether the new appointments will take effect at once or will be deferred until the new year.

TORONTO JUNCTION.
 Toronto Junction, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Mrs. McEwen of 139 Annet-street had her pocketbook, containing several dollars, stolen last night. The pocketbook was discovered by her on the street, and she was unable to find the thief. She has reported the matter to the police, and is waiting for them to catch the thief.

THE MIDDLETON ASSOCIATION.
 The Middlesex Association met to-night at the residence of Mr. E. C. Wilson, at 157 St. George-street, and spent "A Night With Gladstone."
 Oliver Raymond, a brakeman on the C. P. R., lost an index finger while coupling cars near Proton Station last night. It is only a short time since he had his hand crushed in a similar accident.

EDWARD MALLETT.
 Edward Mallet, 7 Drummond Place, a 34-year-old boy, was locked up last night charged with stealing books from W. D. Taylor, 346 Yonge-street.
