Early Closing Inducements for Monday

Monday is an important day for this store. It is the first day of our Early Closing during July and August. It is also the first day of another half year. Why shouldn't it be a day long to be remembered by those who visit the store? We want to make it a record-breaker, so far as sales are concerned. Everything combines to make it so. Extra values to induce quick sales have been provided for the day, while salespeople, inspired with the thought of shorter hours, are ready to do their part and share in the enthusiasm of the occasion.
