IRELAND'S GREATEST BOOM.

Trains Are Now Carrying Crates of Shamrocks from Ireland—Great Demand for Irish Flags.

New York, March 16.—The London correspondent of The Herald says there are ample eloquent indications that the Queen's message about soldiers wearing the shamrock has been interpreted in a way which Her Majesty can scarcely have expected, for St. Patrick's Day is going to be celebrated there as a grand national festivity.

It Was a Great Move.

Long ago it was announced that the Irish national flag would wave above the Mansion House to-morrow, but this also had, like the Queen's message, results which scarcely could have been expected, for it gave the idea all over the country to sport the green flag. The result was that yesterday people were wandering about clamoring for Irish flags with which to decorate their houses, and were intensely disappointed to hear that all such flags had been sold.

Shamrocks in Train Loads.

Each train is bringing in crates of shamrocks from Ireland. It is quite safe to predict that to-morrow all British subjects will wear the shamrock in honor of the gallant Irish soldiers at the front, and everywhere possible the harp on the green ground will wave alongside the Union Jack and the national standard.

The Cigarmakers' Aim.

A representative meeting of union cigarmakers was held early in this week at Stratford, Ont. The object was to devise ways and means to extend the influence of the Cigar Makers' International Union in Canada, thru the better advertisement of the union label and by promoting legislation in the interest of the craft in Canada, etc. The meeting proved highly successful, resulting in organization for the purpose mentioned, with the following executive: William V. Todd, Toronto, ex-Reggy, St. Catharines; A. Garlepy, Montreal. Next place of meeting Berlin, Ont. There is not the slightest foundation for the published despatch from Stratford in relation to this matter, to the effect that the object in view was the formation of a Canadian National Union. The members of the craft in the Dominion are too loyal to the International Union, have too much trust and confidence in it, to waste a thought in the direction of a national union.
