

in attending the meetings of the Mission, and adds, that Eternity alone will be able to tell the amount of good that is being done there.

In reviewing the past I feel that while we can "Thank God and take courage," there is great need for increased faithfulness and persistent effort, if we are to reclaim the wandering ones and lift up the fallen.

D. J. GRAHAM.

Ladies' Visiting and Aid Society.

PRESIDENT, - - - MRS. G. HYDE.

The first meeting for the season 1895-1896 was held October eleventh, and was well attended. As Mrs. D. Crawford, who had filled the office of President for several years, wished to resign, Mrs. Hyde was elected to fill the place and consented to do so.

After some consideration it was decided to have the meetings for sewing in connection with the Ladies' Aid work, instead of, as heretofore, under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary Auxiliary.

A number of ladies' have met to sew, and not only have worked when together, but have taken the work home in order to more quickly complete the garments begun at the meetings. The result has been very satisfactory. Many of the deserving poor have been warmed and cheered.

In some cases an effort had to be made to be at the meetings to minister to the needs of such. To these the Master says, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Seven cases in the congregation have been attended to. Twenty-five dollars and large parcels of new clothing were given to Nazareth Street Sabbath School Mission through Mr. J. Ross, Superintendent.

In November Alice Brisbois, the young girl in whom we are interested at the Mackay Institute, received a complete outfit of new and nicely made clothing, this was given in addition to a small grant of money sent to supply her needs last May.
