 farm for a month. Apply to W. L.
 Adams, Aylmer.

This is now our busy season. Leave your order early and have the best choice at Brocknell's.

Mr. Dow, of Toronto, was the guest of Mrs. A. S. Savage for a few days during the past week.

Miss Grace Strachan spent Thank-giving holidays with her sister, Miss Lillian Strachan, of Listowel.

J. Thody, Aylmer agent for the J. A.
 Eason Dye and Cleaning works, St.
 Thomas. Trial order solicited.

 their dried apple and seed business.
 Rural phone 117.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church held a very successful tea at the residence of Mrs. Hale, South St., on Thursday afternoon last. A large number were present and everyone had a most enjoyable time.

A meeting of the Aylmer branch of the Women's Institute will be held in the council chamber, Wednesday, Nov.
 3rd, at half-past 2 o'clock. An address on prevention of tuberculosis will be given by a lady from London. We invite all the ladies who can to come as we expect the meeting to be very instructive and helpful.

We have taken particular pains, as far as possible, to ask everyone who has gotten sale bills of us this year, and for whom Messrs. Lindsay & Wooldry sold, how their sale went off and we have yet to find one person who was not thoroughly satisfied with the prices realized and the way the sale was conducted.
 That is all anyone can ask.

The decorations of fruit, grain, vegetables &c. at the Methodist church on Sunday last were exceptionally attractive and pretty, the Rev. A. W. Tonge gave two very fine sermons and the singing was first-class, making a most enjoyable and profitable day for the congregation. Miss DeFoe, of Toronto, who was the guest of the Misses Ball, rendered a very fine solo at the evening service.

Tulip, Hyacinth, Daffodil and all spring flowering bulbs at Coughell's.

No better instance of what can be done on a small farm properly worked can be given than the result of Mr. D.
 Campbell's sale conducted by Lindsay & Wooldry on the 20th inst., when the stock, produce and implements, realized the sum of $3,018, all of which was raised and supported on 50 acres. 50 acres well worked will produce more and give more satisfaction to the owner than 100 acres half worked. An idea of the quality of stock kept by Mr. Campbell had been had from the fact that a grade Holstein cow brought the big price of $101, the first instance we know of in this section where a grade cow sold by auction at a price beyond the hundred dollar mark.

Underwear to suit everybody at Christie & Caron's.

All the latest imports in winter overcoats at Brocknell's.

300 cords of dry elm wood for sale cheap. J. E. Lloyd, Kingmill.

Verne Mitchell of Lunan, spent Thanksgiving with his parents here.

Full line of Nyal's family remedies always in stock at J. E. Richards & Co.

If you are short on peaches for canning Young & Caven can still sell you some.

Mr. John Mitts has returned to Aylmer for the winter, having spent the summer in the Northwest.

Miss Susie Sheppard, of Aylmer, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.
 Sydney Parker of Dexter.

Strayed Oct. 20th—A white hog, weighing about 140 lbs. Reward of $2 for his return to Ira Mabe.

Found—A lady's fur boa. Owner may have same by paying for this notice and applying at this office.

Mr. Peter Zaff contemplates opening up a shoe repairing business at L. F.
 Clarke's stand on the foot-bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wellington Young, and daughters, of St. Thomas, spent Thanksgiving at their old home here.

Miss Alice Canfield, of Aylmer, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Can-field, 1 Nanton Ave., Rosedale, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Meldrum, of Thameville, spent a few days in town last week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Q. King.

Messrs. George and Earl Robins, of Springfield, have secured positions with the Aylmer Pump & Scale Co. and will move here shortly.

Miss Grace Stevens, of Detroit, was the guest of Mrs. Chas. Strong over Thanksgiving and her many friends were glad to see her.

Millinery—The cheapest and best hats in Aylmer are the Wright hats, sold at Gunday's old stand by Mrs. C.
 A. Parker. If you have any doubts in the matter, call and see them.

Farmers—Apples are not very plentiful in this section this year. Do not let what you have go to waste. Dry them and bring them to W. H. Finch's ware-rooms where you will get the highest market price for them.

Dried Apples—I am prepared to buy all the dried apples that can be delivered at my warehouses on Talbot St. west and pay the highest market price in cash for them. W. H. Finch.

Mrs. Canon Davis, of Sarnia, was the guest of Mrs. (Dr.) Brown a few days this week and her daughter, Miss Davis, who has been here for the past month or so, returned with her on Wednesday as far as London.

Mr. Wm. Gilbert and his party left on a special G. T. R. car for Golden Valley this a. m. on their annual deer hunt. The other members of the party are A. Caverly, D. Lewis, M. Bonghner, Davenport, C. Jones, C. A. Brower, M.
 Tisdale, A. Stanfield, A. Webb, J.
 Webb, O. Hurst, W. Hibbard and probably John L. Gilbert.

A meeting was held last Monday evening at the Dunborne church and the subscription lists were examined.
 Noticeable a very large majority of the people in the vicinity of Dunborne are favorable toward the rebuilding of the old church, therefore a "building committee" was appointed and the work will proceed in the near future.

Among the scores of visitors to Aylmer over the holiday were noticed: Mrs.
 Waldron and Gladys, Woodstock; Harold Hemmingsway, Ray Dennis, G. A.
 Love, Toronto; Miss M. Kerr, St.
 Thomas; Lyman Brown and wife, Owen Sound; Frank Coles, Ridgeway; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Milroy, London;
 George Dunning, London; J. J. Nairn
 Hamilton; Mr. Hogan, Tilsonburg; Mr. and Mrs. Simson, Romey, Ind.; J.
 W. Ellis, London; Gleason Goddard, Mrs. and Miss Collins, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steele, and A. W.
 Morgan, Delhi, and Miss Cropp, Ingersoll.

Window shades, all colors, all sizes, at Coughell's.

J. E. Mackenzie is about to apply to the Court of Appeal for a reserve case for Ex-Chief of Police Malone, of Simcoe, the two-faced policeman who is now serving a life imprisonment in Kingston penitentiary for a long series of burglaries and an attempt to kill his accomplice, Constable Wilkins, for fear of being found out. Malone denied his guilt up to the last and expressed the opinion that the shadow of guilt resting over him would some day be removed. If guilty, as so judged at the trial, life imprisonment is too good for him, but he should be given every chance to prove his innocence.

Read Bucknell's latest fall ad., page 7.
 For best D. L. & W. Scranton Coal try J. E. Scott.

Mr. Percy T. King left last week for Barrie where he has secured a good situation.

Wanted—Plain sewing to do at home.
 Mrs. S. Shepherd, corner St. George and Talbot St. west.

Christie & Caron have just opened out another lot of those natty young men's hats. Have a look.

Master Ernie Webber is again able to be at work after his recent serious accident in which he broke his arm.

Dr. Anna Backus enjoyed a visit from her mother, Mrs. John H. Backus, and Mrs. Thomas, of Port Rowan, over the holiday.

How about trying some of our own baking powder the next time you cook?
 Once tried, always used. 25c per lb. at J. E. Richards & Co.

G. A. Bingham & Co. have remodelled their new premises and will resume their dried apple business to the fullest capacity this season. Rural phone 117.

Dr. Anna A. Backus has opened an office at her residence Talbot St. West.
 Special attention given to diseases of women and of the eye and ear. Telephone No. 79.

Miss Nina White, of Dutton, who has been the guest of Mrs. N. Booker for several days past, delighted the congregation of Knox church with her singing on Sunday last.

No one has claimed the collier which came to the home of the editor over a month ago. If the owner does not call for it within a week we are going to dispose of it in some way.

Rev. A. Sinclair, of London will occupy the pulpits at Copenhagen, Dun-borne and Jaffa on Sunday, Oct. 31st, in the absence of the junior pastor who will be preaching the anniversary services at High St. Methodist Church.
 Mr. Sinclair is one of the most promising young men of the conference and no one can afford to miss this opportunity of hearing him.

Mrs. Jas. Turner, Mrs. Mark Turner, and her son, Willie spent the Thank-giving holidays in Toronto. We are more than pleased to be able to repeat that Mr. Will Turner, who has been undergoing treatment at the hospital in Toronto for some months, is in the opinion of attending physicians on the way to early and complete recovery of his former health and strength.

We are pleased to be able to announce that the deal for the sale of the old Pork Factory, to the Aylmer Pump & Scale Co., which for the past week has been practically off, has been finally closed, the Pump & Scale Co. having given their check for the amount, $4,500, and the mayor and clerk having been instructed by the council to sign deed, with several small matters of detail being guaranteed by the business men of the town.
 We expect to see within the next year or so, just as big an institution out at the old Pork Factory as the one on Water St., but in any case it is a good deal for the town as well as the Co. While not so far advanced we believe the steps that are being taken to keep the shoe factory here, will be successful and that next week we will be able to announce the fact definitely. Aylmer is all right.

Addressing the business men of Norwich and the Gazette says: "Don't say you and your business are so well known that you need not advertise. The big departmental stores that are cutting into the retail trade don't say that, and they are better known even here than you or your business. Generations are rising up that "Know not Joseph." Changes are taking place every day Make a bid for the trade of the in-comers. Tell them in the Gazette that you are alive and doing business. Show them that they can profit by dealing with you."

The Epworth League of the Methodist church held a very successful pumpkin pie social in the church parlors on Monday night, and though the night was wet, a large and jolly crowd was present. Mr. E. C. Monteith acted as chairman in a very capable manner and after a short speech, the Rev. A. W.
 Tonge and Mr. H. Hogan of Tilson-burg, gave several readings which were much enjoyed. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Wm. Turner, Miss Tonge and Mrs.
 S. McCrimmon. Miss Ada Fansher and Miss Grace Buchanan delighted everyone with their respective piano and violin solos. A tasty lunch was served at the conclusion of the programme.

Bargains in wall paper ends and one-room lots at Coughell's.

Mr. Thomas Campbell, of Windsor, spent Sunday at his home here.

Miss Jennie Madden is slowly recovering from her recent severe illness.

Annie Baloom is visiting friends at Tilsonburg and Courland this week.

Our stock of rubber goods is complete Big stock to choose from. J. E. Richards & Co.

Mrs. Hallworth, of Toronto, is spending a few days with Mrs. O. W. Kennedy.

Over 400 pairs of new odd trousers to select from, $1.00 to $5.00 at Christie & Caron's.

Messrs. Byron Harris and F. D. King took in the poultry show in London on Monday.

Wanted—25000 bus. wheat delivered at elevator. Highest market price. J.
 A. Gillett.

Mr. Geo. A. Love, of Toronto, spent several days during the past week with his mother here.

 modern conveniences. Apply to Mrs.
 A. D. Pound, Sydenham Street.

Mrs. Fred Sanders, of White Fish Mont., returned last week after visiting Mrs. T. Sanders here for a short time.

Mrs. Harry Graham's many friends will be sorry to learn that she is very seriously ill with typhoid fever at her home here.

Mr. Roger Owen, who has accepted a position with the Victoria Shoe Co. of Toronto, will be missed by a large circle of friends here.

W. H. Finch is prepared to buy for cash, any quantity large or small of dried apples and pay the highest market price for them, delivered at his ware-rooms on Talbot St. west.

The editor of the Aylmer Sun has been appointed clerk of the local division court. The appointment is "viewed with alarm" by delinquent subscribers to the Sun.—Ridgeway Dominion.

Now is the time to buy a second buggy to save your new one. You will find some good ones at Samuel Mann's, also some new ones at rock bottom prices. Place of business over Pierces Livery stable. Some wood, potatoes and apples taken in exchange.

About twenty-five Aylmerites attended the honey and hot biscuit social at Trinity church, Malahide, one evening last week. Mr. Wm. Warnock acted as chairman in his usual happy manner and everyone had a good time.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
 Norman Hall, of Guelph, were pleased to have them back in Aylmer for a few days during the past week. Mr. Hall likes his new position, and the town, but up to date he says it is not Aylmer.

Mr. W. H. Wegenast left on Monday last for the north on his annual hunting
