appeal judge, Mr. Justice Duff, in the cases of men who appealed against cases of men who appealed against findings of Western Ontario county appeal judges, have been received by Deputy Registrar W. E. Wismer.

The appeals to the central judge at Ottawa were entered from points all over Military District No. 1. Over 100 notices of appeal were filed and sent of Mr. Justice Duff on behalf of men in this district, but to the present only cated to the deputy registrar.

In one half the decisions made by Mr. Justice Duff he sustains the findings of the tribunals and county appeal judges, so that the appellants are finally called upon to don their uniform after their claims for exemptions have had three hearings.

WHERE IS THAT UTILITIES COAL? MOURNFUL LONDON DIRGE JUST NOW

Where, oh, where are those 10,000 tons of coal the utilities commission promised the other day?

This might be a popular ditto but it isn't.

It was announced some days ago that the city had grabbed off the greatest little bundle of coal in captivity, and soon all the folks would be revelling in heat.

The days have come and the days have gone, but the coal seems gone forever. Not a forkful has come to London, and citizens have been besleging the offices of the commission for the diamonds.

Nobody seems to know where the

But with the Hams it is a different proposition entirely. Hamilton possesses a fast team, composed of some real snappy puck-chasers, and the boys in khaki can pat themselves on the back all they want to after Wednesday night's happening. This was a real test of their ability. They displayed pep, combination and good stick work, and looked like a real hockey team. We have a feeling that the Soidiers are going to put London on the hockey map all right.

Next Tuesday evening they journey to kitchener, where they will connect with the unbeaten kitchener team. This should be a fine game. There is a general feeling among local hockey fans that London will show up well against the league eacers. Just what the sen-ors are really capable of has never been fully shown yet.

The juniors, too, are getting into better condition. They have been practicing assaudously, sharing the rink with the seniors several times.
