A Great Finish at Midnight.

Most of the games were finished by 11 o'clock. Only one game was in progress after that hour. This proved to be a battle royal between A. A. Langford's Thistles and W. H. Downey's Windsor four. Langford was up four shots on the last end and was lying a couple when Downey played a runner with his last bowl and killed the end. On the next end, the Windsor bowlers fought hard and after some skillful work, managed to tie the score by getting four shots. The extra end was a battle all the way with Windsor having a good chance. A. A. Langford, however, came across with one of his beautiful draw shots and lay right beside the kitty for shot and game. A large gallery followed the play on the last two or three ends and it was one of the most exciting finishes of the day.

Officers Elected and Several Matters Discussed at Meeting Held Last Night.

The W. O. B. A. held its annual meet ing at the London Bowling and Rowing Club last night, and in addition to electing officers for the ensuing year, discussed several matters in connection with next year's tournament.

The W. O. B. A. is as yet undecided as to whether a two-day tournament or a three-day tournament is the most suitable for attracting the bowlers. Various expressions of opinion were given by member, from different parts. A Tournament to Satisfy All.

It was pointed out that a two-day tournament, followed by a big Scotch doubles torney, would give those bowlers who prefer the shorter and quicker tournaments a chance to compete, while those who prefer a longer and more leisurely bolwing could play in the doubles and fill out the three or four days pressure to complete the events. days necessary to complete the events.

Many of the bowlers are of the opinion that the short tournament where the bowlers toil from early in the morning to the early hours of the next morning, are doing bowling a lot of harm and making it work instead of sport

Boston Wins; Uses Four Pitchers in 15-Inning Game

Boeckel's Single Allows Maranville To Make the Winning Run.

BOSTON, July 21.—Boeckel's single to right field in the fifteenth inning scored Maranville with the run which won for Boston 7 to 6 here today. St. Louis made five runs off Demaree in the first, largely due to a home run by Heathcote, with two on bases. Boston tied it in the ninth on a hit by Rigger, Hornsby's error on Boeckel's grounder. Herzog's double, Powell's infield out and Smith's sacrifice fly. Fillingim, the last of four Boston pitchers to work, pitched the six extra innings and held the visitors hitless. Score:
