LIQUOR CACHED IN CEMETERY AT

Barrel Buried in What Appeared a Freshly-Dug Grave.

CHATHAM. Aug. 13. - The latest place to "cache" liquor has just been unearthed by the county police in a raid which was made on Wednesday last, when a barrel of "booze" was dug out of what appeared to be a freshly dug grave in a cemetery near the town of Dresden. Some cases of liquor were also found on the roadside concealed under grape vines. It was reported later that members of the whiskey FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS — 444 Waterloo, Tuesday and Friday, 7 to 9 p.m. gang witnessed the seizure of their stock with drawn revolvers, but did not dare to fire owing to the presence of several constables,

Earlier during the day High Constable Peters had arrested Charles Simpson of Detroit on suspicion. Simpson gave a hint to Mr. Peters as to where the booze might be found, and the party searched with the above result. An Oakland six-cylinder car, in good condition, was also saized While sult. An Oakland six-cylinder car, in good condition, was also seized. While the party were obtaining the liquor, Simpson broke out of the Dresden jail and has not been heard of since.

Simpson, Fred Groves and two others entered Canada by way of Sombra a few days ago and went to Wallaceburg. After putting the night policeman in a state of intoxication, two of the party guarded the constable while the others broke into the Dominion Express Company's office there and stole several cases of booze and also one barrel. Part of the booze was left in Wallaceburg and the remainder was taken to Dresden.

The night policemar, was arrested yesterday morning by High Constable Payable By August 16 referred porteins by High Constable Peters, and was allowed out on $800 bail until next Tuesday, when he will be brought up before Magistrate Carscallen in Wallaceburg.
