

THE WOMAN'S HOME MAGAZINE FOR WOMEN EDITED BY LAURA E. McCULLY, B. A.

Gifts the Housekeeper May Make.

The housewife who wants to give Christmas presents to her friends and who has not money to spend on them will find some valuable suggestions for solving the problem in the Christmas Woman's Home Companion.

Orange Marmalade.—Slice very thin, rind and all, three large seedless oranges, and one lemon. Pour over the sliced fruit eleven tumblers of cold water, and set away for twenty-four hours. Then boil slowly for one hour. After boiling, add four pounds of granulated sugar, and set away for twenty-four hours longer, then boil for one hour and twenty minutes, or perhaps a little longer. Pour into jelly glasses. This amount will fill eight glasses. Cover with paraffine. The total cost of the marmalade is not more than seventy-five cents, glasses included, and here are eight presents provided for that ridiculous small sum.

Fruit Cake.—Cream together one and one-half cups of powdered sugar and one cup of butter. Add the well-beaten yolks of six eggs, and one and one-half cups of sifted flour, one-half teaspoonful of ground cloves and one teaspoonful each of powdered cinnamon and nutmeg. Then add the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs and another cup of flour. Add one-half pound of raisins, seeded and chopped. Chop with a knife. Add one-half cup of a pound of citron, one-half cup of chopped almonds and a little chopped orange peel. All these had been dried and chopped and well drained of their syrup. Divide the fruit-cake dough equally in four small pans, steam for one hour, then bake for half an hour in a steady oven.

Coffee Fudge.—Boil together two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of strong coffee. Add either one teaspoonful of butter or one tablespoonful of rich cream. Boil until a spoonful of the candy when stirred, thickens. Then take from the fire, beat hard with a big spoon until the candy begins to grow stiff, quickly beat in one cupful of broken shellbark, nut meats, and pour out into a buttered tin. This is an extremely toothsome candy and not well known.
