ST. JOHN, TUESDAY, OCT. 25, 1831.

The Halifax mail on Saturday put us in possession of London dates to the morning of the 8th September, brought by His Majesty's Ship Winchester, from Portsmouth.—The Reform Bill had at length passed the Consuittee, and was only awaiting its third reading to be sent to the Lords. Its ultimate fate will probably be speedily determined, as there is no reason to anticipate so prolonged a contest in the Upper House as has been maintained in the Commons.—The Winchester sailed a day too soon to bring accounts of the Coronation.
