LOCAL NEWS

Sergt. R. S. Spear of the Canadian Engineers Training Depot, St. John's, Quebec, arrived home yesterday on the Montreal train. He has been in the army for eight months.

The Salvation Army dinners are being distributed today and 100 homes will be made happier. Baskets containing meat, vegetables, bread, fruit, butter, etc., will be delivered to homes of the poor.

The Women's Canadian Club has arranged to hold a reception at an early date for its members and the officers and executives of other patriotic societies to hear an address by Sir Douglas Haig on the subject of war savings and the Thrift Stamps.

A dense fog enveloped the city last evening. At one time it was so thick that the street car service became disorganized as the headlights on the cars were not sufficiently powerful to make it safe for the cars to travel at their usual speed.

The regular meeting of the King Edward Lodge, No. 80, of the P. A. P. B. was held in the lodge's hall, Guilford street, last night, and the following officers were elected: Workman, outside tyler, Charles Dykeman; inside tyler, Burton Ring; and auditors, William Belyea, John Thompson, William Price, F. A. Sewell and Charles Dykeman. The reports showed the lodge to be in a very flourishing condition and it was arranged that the installation of officers should take place at the next regular meeting.
