

BARRISTERS, SOLICITORS, &c. Urquhart & Urquhart

E. A. FORSTER Barrister, Etc. MANNING CHAMBERS.

J. B. LeROY & CO. REAL ESTATE BROKERS

Bates & Dodds Undertakers and Embalmers

J. J. GRAHAM Issuer of Marriage Licenses

J. B. KING Issuer of Marriage Licenses

WALTON & LOOKE Real Estate, Insurance and Financial Brokers

THE STAG HOTEL N. E. COR. KING & YORK STS.

THE DOMINION HOTEL QUEEN STREET EAST

Volunteer Hotel JAMES FAWCETT, Proprietor

The Broadway Hotel Cor. Spadina Ave. and Adelaide Sts.

THE New Carlton Hotel Cor. Yonge and Richmond Sts.

Theatre Patrons J. J. McCAFFERY

D. WARD Pawnbroker 104 Adelaide St. E.

The Emmett Shoe All Styles One Price 3.50 One Quality

THE EMMETT SHOE STORE 119 Yonge St.

SMOKERS Brial Plug 9c. All Goods Lowest Prices

THE TOILER Published Weekly in the Interests of the Workers.

50 CENTS A YEAR THE TOILER PUBLISHING CO. LIMITED

Advertising Rates on Application. Copy for the next volume of the paper should be forwarded to the Editor.

TORONTO, FEBRUARY 27, 1913. Better "the doing something worth while than "having done" it or "going to do" it.

This epidemic of grip makes for athletic exercise. With it may a man can bend his head to his anseer.

Coal, genuine anthracite, can be laid down in Toronto at $5.88 per ton by those who get it.

The daily press say that City Commissioner Coughran "may retire."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

Chief Thompson admits that the unionists "are after him."

THREE-CENT CAR FARES Mayor Tom Johnson, of Cleveland, himself a street car rider, has proposed that city street car lines can be run at a profit on a basis of three-cent fares.

While this issue was taken, a sharp significant thing occurred. The central organization of labor unions of Cleveland had appointed a committee on labor fares, and this committee reported a few days ago with a study of the situation.

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

When he appeared before the central body of the meeting in response to their invitation, Mayor Johnson, in a carefully prepared paper, in which he referred to the bad faith of the report, by referring to the advice to extend the franchise to 1914, he said:

THE ELEVATOR STRIKE The Chicago Public comments as follows on the recent strike of the elevator men in that city:

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

It is due to a feeling—or perhaps we had better call it a subconscious conviction—that "free competition" among workmen today does not really bring fair play. People feel that the dispossessed union man has not enough chance for other employment or for self-employment to make his competition for the job in the market a square matter.

NOT APPRECIATED According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

According to the New York Evening Journal, the old trusts are bringing us back to the old royal days. We did the proud jukes fight for the right to hold the king's shirt while he pulled the strings of the machine.

Directory of Union Meetings COUNCILS

TORONTO DISTRICT LABOR COUNCIL—2nd and 4th Thursdays—Richmond Hall. Sec.—D. W. Kennedy, 53 Edward St.

1st Sunday at 2.30 Musical Protective Ass'n. Sec.—A. McLean, 109 Fuller St.

1st and 3rd Monday Amalgamated Soc. of Engineers. Sec.—John M. Clements, 39 Bellevue Ave.

2nd and 4th Monday Brotherhood of Bookbinders, Local 25. Sec.—Wm. Gocking, 60 Toronto St.

1st and 3rd Tuesday Carriage and Wagon Workers. Sec.—D. S. Wright, 163 St. Patrick St.

2nd and 4th Tuesday Glass Workers Association, Local 21. Sec.—Wm. E. Swain, 60 Arnold Ave.

1st and 3rd Wednesday Retail Clerks. Sec.—Harry Gibbons, 25 Eden Place.

2nd and 4th Wednesday Plumbers, Steam and Gas Fitters. Sec.—Wm. N. Brayton, Room 46, 18 Victoria St.

1st and 3rd Thursday Furriers Union. Sec.—A. V. McCormack, 65 Sussex St.

2nd and 4th Friday Painters and Decorators, No. 3. Sec.—Wm. Howard, 28 Wyatt Ave.

1st and 3rd Saturday Bakers and Confectioners. Sec.—John P. Gardner, 219 Toronto St.

AS TO RAILWAY DISPUTES JOHN D. EVANS, Esq., C.E. Treaton, Ont. EDWARD WILLIAMS, Locomotive Engineer, Hamilton, Ont.

OR OTHER THAN RAILWAY DISPUTES ROGER C. CLUTE, C.C. Toronto, Chairman DAVID W. DUMBLE, Barrister, Peterboro.

HARRIS BUYS SCRAP Books, Pamphlets, Newspapers, Ledgers, Iron, Copper, Brass, etc.

MAIN 3289 & 4 New Me Laundry

Townsend Laundry 187 & 189 Park St.

Merchant Using this Label fair to organization

Albert CATEL CAKES AND WHOLESALE AT 270 and 660 Queen St. W.

"THE LA BUREAU" By an Act passed at the Ontario Legislature a Bureau established for the purpose of publishing information regarding the relations between the industrial and sanitary conditions of the Province, as they affect the health of the people.

Unoin Me The following F the Bakers Union are entitled to this Demand it.

484 Q Look at the EXAMINE THE COATS MADE IN THE 3V or any other

12.5 Men's T made to you 12.50, and FIT

R. R. 484 QUE

MADE IN CANADA

Ontario Trade Disputes Amendment Act, 1897

AS TO RAILWAY DISPUTES JOHN D. EVANS, Esq., C.E. Treaton, Ont. EDWARD WILLIAMS, Locomotive Engineer, Hamilton, Ont.

OR OTHER THAN RAILWAY DISPUTES ROGER C. CLUTE, C.C. Toronto, Chairman DAVID W. DUMBLE, Barrister, Peterboro.

HARRIS BUYS SCRAP Books, Pamphlets, Newspapers, Ledgers, Iron, Copper, Brass, etc.

PHONE 414 MAIN

READ THE TOILER'S NEW STORY

61 Victoria St, Toronto, Ont.