ANNUAL MEETING OF THE FRIENDLY HELP

Review of What Has Been Done in the Past Twelve Months-Officers Elected.

At the annual meeting of the Friendly Help Association held yesterday, the tollowing report was received from the secretary. Lauretta Gould:

"Madam President, Ladies and Gentlemen:-In submitting the eighth annual men:—In submitting the eighth annual report of the Friendly Help Association, worse for wear, and we are seidom able I ask you to glasce back over another year of satisfactory work completed by this institution for Him, who said: 'Inassuuch as ye have done it unto the least our work to all who before long will be ese My brethren, ye have done it unto Me.

"The work has been carried on upon the same lines as in previous years. The which the city is divided are faithfully visited by one or more ladies in each district. ies were thus assisted. "There are some who still accuse the Friendly Help of assisting those who are not in want. To such we would say that even if all of these eighty families were not in extereme want, a large number of them were the deserving poor, to whom such unsought assistance is really a Godsend at that season of the year, and that our visitors are very vigilant, and are

"The thanks of the society are due to help, to the Home Nursing Society for coking after many needy ones by sending their nurse, to the daily papers for gratuitous notices, to Mr. Johnson, market superintendent, and many others, who assisted with donations of all kinds as soon as our wants were made known to them. In this way they have lightened the burdens of those who are less happily situated than themselves, and obtain the biessing of those who show mercy."
