when it gave its approval last week to a bill prohibiting the manufacture, Talk of Doing Away with the Maine importation and sale of cigarettes Importation and sale of Cigarettes. The bill-was a private one, both parties steering carefully clear of endorsation or opposition, and the best explanation of the action of the undirected rank and file is their desire to curry favor-with a certain section of the electorate now that an election is in sight. For the law is an impossible one and, if passed by the senate, which is improbable, would only add to the already too long list of dead letter laws on the Canadian statute book. Undoubtedly cigarettes are harmful for boys and because of their mildness are more frequently used by minors than tobacco in any other form. But there are laws to prevent their sale to the young and if these cannot be ensorted what hope is there for a law which would prohibit their sale to the young and if these cannot be ensorted it, evasion would be easy and certain one could buy his own tobacco and make his own cigarettes, for instance and utter ignoring of the law which is the sale; to the respect for law which is the basis of order.

The constant of the general manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway it was ascertained this morning than bronging its moning that there is no immediate likelihood of the company changing its main line to St. John. SUSSEX ALDERMEN ECONOMIZE. SUSSEX. June 28.—The new town council held its first meeting yesterday

The meeting was informal, and was held principally to fix upon plans for the economic administering of the town's affairs for the next year. Economy is the new council's watchword. In order to cut down expenses it was deemed best that the offices of the town clerk and town treasurer be amalgamated. The council felt too, that legal assistance would be necessary in the work of organizing, drafting and constructing the incorporation act, and J.
