ALL CITY SCHOOLS CLOSED TODAY.

Today is the red letter day of the year for the school children. The fact that it is the last day of the term enables them to go to school with an amount of cheerfulness that is not generally displayed on other days. In all the schools the happy looking children were in the usual quiver of excitement over the prospect of a couple of months' holidays.

In those schools which are fortunate enough to have exhibition halls the pupils assembled for the public exercises and in the other buildings the occasion was observed by special exercises in the various class rooms.

THE HIGH SCHOOL.

Chief interest centered at the high school and large numbers of parents and friends of the scholars gathered to witness the closing exercise. The programme was as follows:

High School Orchestra.
Humoresque—Lester Keith.
Essay, "Honor"—Madeline de Soyres.
Essay, "Indian Legends and Place Names"—James Dever.
High School Orchestra.
Valse, "Beauty's Dream" — Lester Keith.

ST. PETER'S GIRLS' SCHOOL.

In St. Peter's school the girls in the higher grade were examined on the work they had done during the past year. The lower classes carried out programs of drills, songs and recitations in the various class rooms. A large number of visitors were present to watch the exercises in the different rooms.

Yesterday Sister Beatrice, who is retiring after teaching for forty-two years, was presented by the scholars with a well filled purse and a large bouquet of carnations.

DOUGLAS AVENUE SCHOOL.

Owing to the lack of an exhibition hall the closing exercises of the Douglas Avenue schools were held in the various class rooms. The scholars in the principal rooms were examined in the work of the past term. In each of the other rooms an interesting programme was carried out by the pupils. Owing to the lack of chairs some embarassment was caused in accommodating the number of visitors who attended the closing exercises.

A presentation was made to Miss Fox, of the teaching staff by Helen Russell, on behalf of the pupils of her room. Miss Fox is retiring from school work and the presentation was made as a mark of the esteem in which she was held by the scholars.

NEWMAN STREET SCHOOL.

As Newman street school is not provided with an exhibition hall the two grades on the lower floor observed closing day with an examination of the year's work.

The two classes on the upper floor gathered in Miss Gregory's room and in the presence of a number of parents and friends of the children carried out a programme of recitations and songs.

LEINSTER ST. SCHOOL.

Owing to the fact that there was no suitable piano available there was no public exercises in the Leinster St. school today to mark the close of the school year..

In the various class rooms the teachers examined their scholars in the year's work.

The subject in which the boys, under the charge of Mr. Cormier, the principal, were examined were: — Science, mathematics, Latin and history.

A large number of parents and friends of the boys visited the school and listened to the examinations

CENTENNIAL SCHOOL.

The closing exercises of Centennial school took place this morning in the exhibition hall, commencing at eleven o'clock. In the presence of a large crowd of visitors the following program was carried out by the children:—

FREDERICTON, June 24.—The public schools closed for their summer vacation today with the usual interesting exercises. The attendance of visitors was above the average. At the high school the proceedings passed off most pleasantly, the presentation of prizes and addresses forming the chief part of the programme. Rev. A. A. Rireout delivered a brief and pointed address to the graduating class which this year numbers twenty-nine. The public examinations closed with the rendering of God Save The King.

THE BOHEMIAN GIRL.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the approaching visit of Halifax amateurs who will for the first three nights of next week present at the Opera House The Bohemian Girl. Mr. Max Well will bring a chorus of forty from his school of music. Among the principals will be several well known vocalists including Mrs. Covey, soprano, Robert Hall, tenor and Robert Seaman, baritone. The Bohemian Girl will be prettily costumed and splendidly staged.

"Kiss me, my dear," said her husband in a thick tone of voice.

"It isn't necessary," replied the wife. "I can tell you've been drinking without that."

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

Piano Economy

In buying a piano, it is a mistake to pay too much and absolutely disastrous to pay too little.

There are a few higher priced pianos than the Wormwith—there are many that are lower priced—but there are none that give you such a full measure of musical satisfaction, or for a longer time for the money paid.
