BRAVE CANADIAN SOLDIERS HAVE RECAPTURED BELEAGUERED SUSSEX

Citizen Soldiers in Sham Battle Show Valiant Front to Foe.

TACTICAL SCHEME WAS BIG SUCCESS

Peaceful Kings County Hills Scene of Mighty Struggle for Supremacy—Col. Rutherford Highly Pleased with Showing of Militiamen.

Special to The Standard.

Sussex, July 4.—From the moment the advance parties of the Blue Canadian Army marching to the relief of beleaguered Sussex came in contact with the red invading force, two miles outside the town, at an early hour this morning, the peaceful Sussex hills and fields were the scene of a fierce and well fought, though bloodless, battle. The Canadian Army was victorious. For several hours the heavy booming of the cannon and the sharp vicious snarls of the Ross rifles sounded their discordant notes, rudely disturbing the usual quietude of the country fields and incidentally giving the farmers a taste of what would happen if bullets and a real enemy took the place of the blank shells and the Red army.

Long before daybreak the Blue force under Colonel MacKenzie, consisting of the 28th Dragoons, 4th Brigade, Canadian Field Artillery, less the tenth battery, 1st field company of engineers less one section, detachment of the Corps of Guides, 16th Infantry Brigade, No. 1 Company of the 6th Divisional Train, and a section of the Field Ambulance, arrived from No. 2 Clearing Hospital, were called from their blankets by the report of a spy to the effect that the Red army had taken up positions and were preparing to resist the advance. The forward movement was begun and shortly afterward the advance guard consisting of the 28th Dragoons came into contact with a platoon of the enemy composed of a squadron of the 8th Hussars. A sharp cavalry fight issued but on the arrival of reinforcements the Red cavalry was forced to retreat and take up position with the main body. From that time on the engagement became general. The rival armies met about two miles below Sussex, after the pickets and outpost parties had been driven in.

The battle was spectacular in the extreme, the mighty thundering guns and the rattle of the rifle fire gradually creeping nearer, the enemy's lines being very realistic.

The Red forces, under Colonel McLean, had been placed with consummate skill and in his intention to hinder the advance of the Blues he was remarkably successful. His force consisting of the 8th Hussars, the 10th Field Battery and one section of the engineers was placed along the roads leading to the captured town while the battery was placed in a wood to sweep the Canadians as they advanced.

As the blue infantry came on backed by their cannon and cavalry and taking advantage of the natural cover offered by the country, they presented an imposing and military appearance, while the roll of the firing and the puffs of smoke made it appear that the fighting was in deadly earnest. To the spectator, unused to military movements, the sight was one which will linger long in the memory, and he talked of on future occasions.

Blues Advance. After the engagement advanced and the Blue Army gradually gained control, Colonel MacKenzie would issue an order from his headquarters, instantly a mounted orderly would appear to the firing line, and by magic in answer to the call of a hundred whistles, long lines of cheering khaki clad men would issue from beneath hedges, and behind rocks and charge across a field, climb a fence, drive large bodies of the enemy before them and again take cover, completing the route with angry volleys of musketry.

SCENES AT CAMP SUSSEX

28th DRAGOONS WATERING HORSES—SQUADRON OF CAVALRY AFTER MORNING RIDE AND DRILL.

ARMY COOKS AT WORK—NOON HOUR AT 62nd REGIMENT CAMP KITCHEN.

While from a point of vantage the deeper roaring of the artillery would add a sinister note to the fight. Gradually the gallant Blue army outflanked the enemy and the 28th Dragoons, by a snappy movement, captured a squadron of the 8th Hussars. Then the infantry regiments worked their way forward and silenced the 10th battery. Another quick charge split the Red army in pieces and the Canadians were pronounced victorious "mid the roaring cheers of the soldiers."

During the battle the excellent work of the signalling corps made the movements of the troops dangerous in the extreme. The moment the different armies moved or counter moved, a charge split the Red army in pieces and the Canadians were pronounced victorious "mid the roaring cheers of the soldiers."

MARATHONS AND ST. CROIX WON TWO GAMES EACH YESTERDAY

NORTH SHORE CAPTAIN HAS DISAPPEARED

Captain Smith of Schooner Greta, has Vanished with $400—Many Reports of Whereabouts.

Special to The Standard.

Chatham, July 4.—Where is Capt. P. H. Smith of the three masted schooner Greta, at present in port at Fire Island? That is a question that is causing considerable worry to the crew and the owner of the vessel, Captain Howell, of Dalhousie, and the schooner last week and on Saturday finished discharging a cargo of coal for the Miramichi Lumber Company at Fire Island. Capt. Smith then received his money for the freight amounting to nearly $400, and on Monday afternoon disappeared.

The mate of the vessel saw Captain Smith for the last time on Monday morning about nine o'clock, and when on Tuesday he could not locate him anywhere in town he wired the information to the owner. Capt. Smith belongs to West Point, P.E.I., and is an elderly man who is well known here, and always bore an excellent reputation, and it is hard to account for the peculiarity of his actions on this occasion.

He is said to be the owner of property on the island, and it is considered that he would make away with a comparatively small sum as that of the freight money. Some expressed the opinion that he had met with an accident and might possibly have been drowned, but members of the crew, and others who are in touch with shipping matters seem convinced that he has actually left town of his own accord.

Since camp opened two weeks ago the troops have undergone a great change, and it would be hard to recognize in the efficient soldiers the raw recruits who attended the first drills. Two weeks under instructors and competent officers has worked wonders, and although the general public have only a vague idea of the training, it is safe to say that in time of trouble New Brunswick will be represented by a fine body of men.

Colonel Rutherford also spoke highly of the manner in which Colonel MacKenzie and Colonel H. H. McLean had handled their respective troops and pointed out that good generalship had been displayed on both sides.

Colonel Humphrey, camp commandant, also addressed the officers and spoke highly of the manner in which the fight was carried out. He said that the movement had been an unqualified success, and although only attempted on a small scale, everything was done in a satisfactory manner.

Next year, said Colonel Humphrey, the bivouac will be considerably more completed. Colonel Nelles, of St. John's, Quebec, and Inspector general of Dominion cavalry, inspected the 8th Hussars and 28th Dragoons today and expressed himself as pleased with the efficiency of the two regiments. The inspection was thorough and occupied considerable time, and the troops were justly proud of his words of praise.

Many Spectators. The usual throngs of visitors were on hand for the battle, an exceptional large number being present. They took much interest in the work of the troops, and were much excited when the tide of battle brought the contest of the armies in their immediate vicinity.

Marathons Win Two.

Special to The Standard. Bangor, Maine, July 4.—Fireworks were plenty at both the morning and afternoon sessions of a holiday today, St. John applying the match to the powder and trimming Bangor for two games.

The morning game they took into camp by a score of 11 to nothing, and the afternoon game by a score of 17 to 11.

In the morning Charles, a new recruit of Frank Leonard's, held the home team down to four hits, while the visitors touched McPhee up for 11.

There was nothing doing until the fifth, when St. John came across with four runs by timely hitting. Riley tripled and Waterhouse doubled. Charles was an easy out. O'Brien tripled and then Pinkerton and Shanley both singled.

In the seventh they got two more across the pan when Charles got a life on an error by Conaughton. O'Brien singled and Pinkerton beat out a bat. With the bases full McPhee passed Shanley, forcing in a run. O'Brien scored on a hit by Watt.

In the eighth came three more runs. Waterhouse was passed by Charles singled. O'Brien hit for four sacks.

In the ninth the visitors got two more singles by Black and Watt and Bena's triple pushed them over.

A Batting Feast. In the afternoon game it was a batting feast. Bangor came to the bat first, St. John taking the field. Woodbury got into a bad hole when he passed the first two men, but the side failed to get a run across.

St. John went out in order in their half. In the second they scored one. Black singled. Watt sent him along with a sacrifice and he scored on a single by Ramsey.

The third inning was horrible to witness. Thirteen St. John men faced both Bangor pitchers. Woodbury singled and went to second on a sacrifice hit to O'Brien. Pinkerton singled, Shanley fanned, Black was hit by pitcher and Watt singled. Here McLeilan was ranked one of the box and Wallace was sent in. Ramsey got a life on an error by Wildes. Riley and Waterhouse got bases on balls. Woodbury came up for the second time and singled again. O'Brien tripled and Pinkerton singled. Shanley ended the misery by flying out to Conley. When the runs were called up they walked.

In the fourth Bangor came across with two runs. Only got first on an error and Brooks scored him when he hit for four corners.

In the fifth Dolan tripled and scored on an outfield hit. St. John went out in order in the fourth and fifth. In the sixth they got two more when Black was passed. Watt doubled and Ramsey singled. Bangor scored five runs in the eighth. Tarbell was sent in to relieve Woodbury in the sixth and they got to his delivery for seven hits. Triples by Dolan, Conaughton and Tewhey and singles by Conly, Wildes, Wakefield and Wallace tell the tale.

In the ninth they came in with three more. Reed singled, Conly doubled and Wildes singled. Brooks was hit and Wakefield singled.

It was give and take, for the visitors made five runs in the eighth. Nine men came up to bat. O'Brien singled, Pinkerton tripled, Watt and Ramsey were hit.

It was a holiday crowd, about two thousand people attending both games. The day was very hot, with not a bit of a breeze blowing.
