ONLY A RUMOR.

The current rumor in military circles lately that Class C men under the Military Service Act would in the near future be called for garrison duty remains in doubt, as no official confirmation of the order has up to the present time been received at the local military headquarters. A military man stated yesterday that this rumor of C Class category men being detailed for duty is only a concoction in the minds of a doubting thief. Even Class B men will not be called for a time, due to the agricultural needs of the nation, as men in this category will be allowed to remain on the farms for this time being.
