

Newcastle

Newcastle, N. B., Feb. 11.—Mrs. Bert Kane and Miss Pearl Wright of Boston, Mass., are in town this week having been called here by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Arch. Wright.

Mr. L. Grossman, who removed from Newcastle to Milwaukee, Wis., about two years ago is visiting his son, Louis Grossman, here.

Capt. W. H. Todd, Secretary Treasurer of Northumberland and Mr. J. W. Vandenberg, M.L.A., were in Fredericton this week on County business.

Mr. A. T. LeBlanc of Campbellton, was a visitor in town this week.

Mrs. C. P. McCabe, Mrs. Louise Lawlor and Miss Clara Wright of Moncton, were attending the funeral of the late Mrs. Thomas Howard.

Rev. L. H. MacLean left on Monday for Toronto, to attend a meeting of the Bible Society, which will be held there this week.

Miss Rita Mackay is visiting friends in St. John.

Rev. E. A. Kinley, for the past five years pastor of the Baptist Church here, has accepted a call to Truro, N. S., and read his resignation at the morning service here on Sunday. Mr. Kinley is an energetic worker and will be much missed. He assumes his new pastorate on the second Sunday in March.

Mrs. A. J. Molina of Moncton, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. William McEachern here.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a new daughter at their home in Derby Junction on the 3rd inst.

Miss Carmel Burman of Moncton, is visiting her friend, Miss Lottie McWilliam this week.

Mrs. A. H. Mackay and son Jack, have returned from Basle, where they were attending the funeral of Mrs. Mackay's sister, the late Mrs. Carl A. Goodwin.

Mr. Charles MacLaughlin has returned from a trip to Boston and New York.

Mr. Fraser W. Harris and daughter, Dorothy, left yesterday for Rutland, Vermont, where the latter will undergo medical treatment.

Mrs. D. R. Brown has returned from a visit to friends in New York.

Mr. Clarence Gorman of Boston, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gorman, South Nelson.

Mrs. William Sheasgreen, Montreal, and Joseph Murphy of Boston, arrived home last week to attend the funeral of their brother, the late Howard and Murphy Redbank.

Mr. Richard Burke of Melrose, Mass., is visiting his sister, Mrs. William McCullum this week.

Shediac

Shediac, N. B., Feb. 11.—Quantities of the beautiful are in evidence on all sides, owing to the very heavy storm of Sunday last.

The closing pre-lenten social event was the recent very pleasant afternoon tea given by Mrs. A. J. Tait at her residence, "Brookside". Among the ladies present were Mrs. A. H. Trueman, Mrs. W. A. Ward, Mrs. John Connors, Mrs. M. A. Oulton, Mrs. J. W. Livingston, Mrs. A. Magruder, Mrs. James Stewart, Mrs. J. W. Black, Mrs. Charters, Mrs. A. J. Webster, Mrs. W. R. Weddall, Mrs. D. J. Dolron, Mrs. R. Dolron, Mrs. Gaudet, Mrs. R. Jardine, Mrs. E. A. Smith, Mrs. D. S. Harper, Mrs. R. C. Tait, Mrs. H. B. Stearns, Mrs. F. J. Robidoux, Mrs. H. W. Macdonald and Mrs. E. R. Macdonald. Spring flowers adorned the tea table presided over by Mrs. R. C. Tait and Mrs. Robidoux. The young ladies and on behalf of all present tendered a vote of thanks to Master Alex. Tait, the officers and teachers of the school, for the very pleasant evening's entertainment.

Prof. Spaulding of Yale, New Haven, was a weekend guest of friends in town.

Mr. W. Stewart, late of the Bank of Montreal staff, Woodstock, but now of Moncton, was among visitors in town for the weekend.

Miss E. Harper is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Bell, Moncton.

Miss Margaret Murray, Mrs. A. J. Webster and Miss Ray were among Shediac people this week in Moncton.

Miss Ouellet of Edmundston, was in town this week, to attend the funeral of her aunt, the late Mrs. Vitalle Ouellet of Barachois.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson, have left town to reside in Moncton.

A very enthusiastic game of hockey took place this week in the Shediac skating rink, between Moncton and Shediac, resulting in victory for the home team.

Mr. O. P. Wilbur, Sussex, was recently in town.

Mrs. A. J. Webster expects to leave town on Monday to visit in Quebec and New York.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years

Always keeps babies healthy

St. Stephen

St. Stephen, N. B., Feb. 11.—The Valentine Tea, held by the Council Chambers on Friday afternoon, was the last of the series given by the Women's Canadian Club and was a very pretty and successful event.

The hostesses were Mrs. Thomas Toal, who was also chairman of the committee, Mrs. C. J. Vanstone and Mrs. Myra Veasey, Mrs. Rebecca Smith was in charge of the decorations and much credit is due her for the artistic way in which the hall was decorated. The tea table looked most attractive and was very handsomely arranged. Mrs. J. W. Scovell and Mrs. W. W. Macdonald presided over the tables and were assisted by Mrs. M. W. McCormack and Miss Ethel Lawson.

Mrs. Geo. Ennor, Mrs. A. C. Gregory and Mrs. Arthur McVie served the salad, while Mrs. R. Doten, Mrs. Fred Graham, Mrs. Julius Towers, Mrs. A.M. Budd and Mrs. H. M. Webber attended to the cakes and biscuits, etc. The small tables were very prettily arranged with red hearts, cupid and candles and very dainty menu cards, the work of Miss Wilson. They were in charge of Mrs. Frank Scott, Mrs. Roy Gilman, Mrs. C. A. O'Brien, Mrs. Bruce Buchanan, Mrs. J. F. Oll, Mrs. Bertram De Wolfe, Mrs. Fred McAllister and Misses Anna Doten, Alice Wolfe, Mary Henderson, Helen Scovell and Liela Moore, who all wore pretty white gowns profusely trimmed with red hearts.

Mrs. Wallace Towers, Mrs. J. R. Lewis, Mrs. Maria Stander, Josephine Campbell and Mabel McMillen assisted in serving. The tea was largely attended and much regret was expressed that there were not more of these very social gatherings. Mrs. Rebecca Smith acted as cashier; the sum of $125.00 was realized.

Venerable Archdeacon Newham has returned from a short visit in Toronto.

Miss Mary Henderson has been visiting Mrs. Harold Haley at her home on Prince William street during the week.

Miss Robert Grimmer returned from Boston on Saturday, called home by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. R. W. O'Brien.

Mrs. Mattie Harris entertained friends very pleasantly at Bridge at home on North street, Calais, on Wednesday evening last. Her guests were Mrs. W. J. Fowler, Mrs. Sarah Tarr, Mrs. Annie Lee, Mrs. W. J. Harper, Mrs. F. N. Beckett, Mrs. Geo. Murchio, Mrs. W. Clarke, Mrs. Ernest Haycock and Mrs. W. F. Boardman. Very dainty refreshments were served after the game.

Mr. W. F. Todd and Mrs. Mildred Todd returned on Saturday from an extended visit in Boston, Mass.

Rev. F. H. and Mrs. Holmes are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Sunday last.

Mrs. Herman Wry's friends are glad to see her out again after her recent illness.

Harold Haley returned on Wednesday from a trip to Boston and other cities.

John Clarke has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

Mrs. Harold Haley gave a delightful "neighborhood" party at her home on Prince William Street, on Thursday last. A jolly evening was spent playing games at which prizes were won by Miss Beattie Dinmore, Miss Elsie Lawson and Miss Theo. Stevens. A very dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. D. Granville and Misses Elsie Lawson, Mary Henderson and Betty Dinmore assisted Mrs. Haley in serving. The guests were Mrs. Jeffrey, Mrs. Granville, Mrs. Joseph McNeill, Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. H. D. McKay, Mrs. W. R. Carson, Mrs. S. D. Granville, Mrs. H. L. Wall, Mrs. Fred McChas, Mrs. S. H. Stevens, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. W. E. Clarke, Misses Eliza McBride, Winifred Ruit, Helen McBride, Arthurista Branscombe, Marion White, Mary Henderson, Elsie Lawson, Betty Dinmore and Theodora Stevens.

Mrs. N. Marks Mills and Miss Billie Woodcock entertained friends most delightfully with a bridge party at "The Emu" on Friday evening last. Mrs. Mills was crowned in a handsome dress of light thin satin with georgette and sequin trimmings. Mrs. Woodcock wore a dainty gown of white crepe-de-chene with corded of beaded net. Many very handsome gowns were worn by the guests, of whom there were about 60 present. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frances Lowell, Mrs. Harry Gillespie and Mrs. Aubrey Upham. Very delicious refreshments were served after the game. Mrs. Wm. Mills and Winifred Mills, in serving their guests, Little Miss Marjorie Mills attended the door.

Miss Arthurista Branscombe entertained the Ladies Advisory Board of Chipman Memorial Hospital at dinner at the Nurses Home on Wednesday evening, in honor of Mrs. Laura Bogue, the retiring president of the board. At a short business session called by Mrs. L. M. Robinson, the newly elected president, at the close of the dinner Mrs. Bogue was unanimously elected Honorary President, in recognition of her long and valued service. Mrs. D. K. Harmon who presented the motion and Mrs. C. G. Main who seconded it, both spoke in well chosen words of the untiring devotion and generous giving of self and time by Mrs. Bogue to the best interests of the Hospital, and of the sincere regret felt by all at her leaving the chair. A toast to the Hon. President was then proposed and "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" sung right heartily. After the dinner a jolly evening was spent at the movies. Miss Branscombe guests were Mrs. Laura Bogue, Mrs. L. M. Robinson, Mrs. D. K. Harmon, Mrs. Annie Deacon, Mrs. C. E. Casey, Mrs. Mary Hanson, Mrs. C. G. Main, Mrs. H. L. Wall, Annie McBride and Mrs. Miss Theodora Stevens.

Miss Laura Bogue entertained the members of the Ladies Advisory Board of the C. M. H. very delightfully at the "Valentine Tea" on Friday afternoon. A very dainty arrangement of tables with special place cards, was served for Mrs. Bogue and her guests who were Mrs. L. M. Robinson, Mrs. D. K. Harmon, Mrs. Annie Deacon, Mrs. C. E. Casey, Mrs. Mary Hanson, Mrs. C. G. Main, Mrs. H. L. Wall, Annie McBride and Mrs. Theodora Stevens.

The supper, called "The Steadfast Mission Circle of McCall Meth. Church on Tuesday evening of this week was a splendid success, both socially and financially. The very lockets were profusely decorated with valentine decorations in red and white. The tables were daintily arranged with hearts and cupid and candleabra of red candles. The young ladies who served wore lovely white dresses and caps trimmed with hearts and cupid. Over two hundred dollars was realized.

Mrs. P. F. McKenna entertained the high school class of which her daughter, Miss Mary, is a member, at the supper in the Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. In addition to the table decorations dainty place cards were served. The supper was at each place. After the supper a pleasant evening was spent at the movies.

Mrs. Ernest Holyoke and Mrs. Ada Poole of Woodstock were guests of friends in town over the week end.

Mrs. W. R. Carson entertained a party of friends at the supper in McCall Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. Her guests were Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. Marie Burton, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. Harold Haley, Mrs. H. L. Wall and Miss Arthurista Branscombe.

Apohaqui

Apohaqui, Feb. 11.—The annual banquet given by the ladies of the Lower Millstream Women's Institute to their husbands and friends, took place on Tuesday evening. On this occasion the home of Councilor of J. E. McAuley and Mrs. McAuley and the guests gathered at the home of Mrs. J. E. McAuley, a spacious and well equipped home of that gentleman of prominence.

After a general reception of the guests, the members of the institute proceeded to hold their monthly session with the president, Mrs. S. A. McAuley presiding. After the business session and roll call, the minutes of last meeting were read by the secretary, Mrs. W. J. Fowler, Mrs. Sarah Tarr, Mrs. Annie Lee, Mrs. W. J. Harper, Mrs. F. N. Beckett, Mrs. Geo. Murchio, Mrs. W. Clarke, Mrs. Ernest Haycock and Mrs. W. F. Boardman. Very dainty refreshments were served after the game.

Mr. W. F. Todd and Mrs. Mildred Todd returned on Saturday from an extended visit in Boston, Mass.

Rev. F. H. and Mrs. Holmes are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on Sunday last.

Mrs. Herman Wry's friends are glad to see her out again after her recent illness.

Harold Haley returned on Wednesday from a trip to Boston and other cities.

John Clarke has returned from a business trip to Montreal.

Mrs. Harold Haley gave a delightful "neighborhood" party at her home on Prince William Street, on Thursday last. A jolly evening was spent playing games at which prizes were won by Miss Beattie Dinmore, Miss Elsie Lawson and Miss Theo. Stevens. A very dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. D. Granville and Misses Elsie Lawson, Mary Henderson and Betty Dinmore assisted Mrs. Haley in serving. The guests were Mrs. Jeffrey, Mrs. Granville, Mrs. Joseph McNeill, Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. H. D. McKay, Mrs. W. R. Carson, Mrs. S. D. Granville, Mrs. H. L. Wall, Mrs. Fred McChas, Mrs. S. H. Stevens, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. W. E. Clarke, Misses Eliza McBride, Winifred Ruit, Helen McBride, Arthurista Branscombe, Marion White, Mary Henderson, Elsie Lawson, Betty Dinmore and Theodora Stevens.

Mrs. N. Marks Mills and Miss Billie Woodcock entertained friends most delightfully with a bridge party at "The Emu" on Friday evening last. Mrs. Mills was crowned in a handsome dress of light thin satin with georgette and sequin trimmings. Mrs. Woodcock wore a dainty gown of white crepe-de-chene with corded of beaded net. Many very handsome gowns were worn by the guests, of whom there were about 60 present. Prizes were won by Mrs. Frances Lowell, Mrs. Harry Gillespie and Mrs. Aubrey Upham. Very delicious refreshments were served after the game. Mrs. Wm. Mills and Winifred Mills, in serving their guests, Little Miss Marjorie Mills attended the door.

Miss Arthurista Branscombe entertained the Ladies Advisory Board of Chipman Memorial Hospital at dinner at the Nurses Home on Wednesday evening, in honor of Mrs. Laura Bogue, the retiring president of the board. At a short business session called by Mrs. L. M. Robinson, the newly elected president, at the close of the dinner Mrs. Bogue was unanimously elected Honorary President, in recognition of her long and valued service. Mrs. D. K. Harmon who presented the motion and Mrs. C. G. Main who seconded it, both spoke in well chosen words of the untiring devotion and generous giving of self and time by Mrs. Bogue to the best interests of the Hospital, and of the sincere regret felt by all at her leaving the chair. A toast to the Hon. President was then proposed and "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" sung right heartily. After the dinner a jolly evening was spent at the movies. Miss Branscombe guests were Mrs. Laura Bogue, Mrs. L. M. Robinson, Mrs. D. K. Harmon, Mrs. Annie Deacon, Mrs. C. E. Casey, Mrs. Mary Hanson, Mrs. C. G. Main, Mrs. H. L. Wall, Annie McBride and Mrs. Miss Theodora Stevens.

Miss Laura Bogue entertained the members of the Ladies Advisory Board of the C. M. H. very delightfully at the "Valentine Tea" on Friday afternoon. A very dainty arrangement of tables with special place cards, was served for Mrs. Bogue and her guests who were Mrs. L. M. Robinson, Mrs. D. K. Harmon, Mrs. Annie Deacon, Mrs. C. E. Casey, Mrs. Mary Hanson, Mrs. C. G. Main, Mrs. H. L. Wall, Annie McBride and Mrs. Theodora Stevens.

The supper, called "The Steadfast Mission Circle of McCall Meth. Church on Tuesday evening of this week was a splendid success, both socially and financially. The very lockets were profusely decorated with valentine decorations in red and white. The tables were daintily arranged with hearts and cupid and candleabra of red candles. The young ladies who served wore lovely white dresses and caps trimmed with hearts and cupid. Over two hundred dollars was realized.

Mrs. P. F. McKenna entertained the high school class of which her daughter, Miss Mary, is a member, at the supper in the Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. In addition to the table decorations dainty place cards were served. The supper was at each place. After the supper a pleasant evening was spent at the movies.

Mrs. Ernest Holyoke and Mrs. Ada Poole of Woodstock were guests of friends in town over the week end.

Mrs. W. R. Carson entertained a party of friends at the supper in McCall Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. Her guests were Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. Marie Burton, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. Harold Haley, Mrs. H. L. Wall and Miss Arthurista Branscombe.

Mrs. Ernest Holyoke and Mrs. Ada Poole of Woodstock were guests of friends in town over the week end.

Mrs. W. R. Carson entertained a party of friends at the supper in McCall Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. Her guests were Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. Marie Burton, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. Harold Haley, Mrs. H. L. Wall and Miss Arthurista Branscombe.

Mrs. Ernest Holyoke and Mrs. Ada Poole of Woodstock were guests of friends in town over the week end.

Mrs. W. R. Carson entertained a party of friends at the supper in McCall Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. Her guests were Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. Marie Burton, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. Harold Haley, Mrs. H. L. Wall and Miss Arthurista Branscombe.

Mrs. Ernest Holyoke and Mrs. Ada Poole of Woodstock were guests of friends in town over the week end.

Mrs. W. R. Carson entertained a party of friends at the supper in McCall Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. Her guests were Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. Marie Burton, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. Harold Haley, Mrs. H. L. Wall and Miss Arthurista Branscombe.

Mrs. Ernest Holyoke and Mrs. Ada Poole of Woodstock were guests of friends in town over the week end.

Mrs. W. R. Carson entertained a party of friends at the supper in McCall Meth. Vestry on Tuesday evening. Her guests were Mrs. A. Laffin, Mrs. Marie Burton, Mrs. Stuart Ryder, Mrs. Harold Haley, Mrs. H. L. Wall and Miss Arthurista Branscombe.

McAuley, entertained with a mirth-provoking reading, "The Busy House Wife," which surely was true to life. Miss Florence McAuley was next heard in a sweetly rendered solo, "That's What God Made Mothers For."

Mrs. L. Johnson Leard was the next entertainer and who is always greeted with much pleasure and maintained her enviable reputation as a reader in her selection, "A Comic Song." The rendering of a piano duet by Masters Charles and Ralph Coy showed marked talent in the youthful musicians.

"Little Breaches," was the title of the reading given by Mr. W. W. McAuley, who as on former occasions, was at home in his humorous selections.

Mr. Leonard McAuley favored the company with a solo, "There's An Old Fashioned House In An Old Fashioned Town."

Mrs. Howard Patterson next gave a reading, "The Mourning Veil."

A piano solo "An Old Fashioned Dance," was played with much expression by Mrs. Ralph Coy, after which addresses were given by Rev. C. Saunders Young, Rev. L. Johnson Leard, Mr. Harley S. Jones, Mr. John Woods, and Councilor J. E. McAuley. Letters of regret at being unable to attend the function were received by the secretary, Mrs. J. Everett Fenwick, from Rev. Canon Sheehan and Rev. A. V. Morash and read at the meeting, after which meeting adjourned to the nearness of the date of St. Vincent's day, the residence was decorated in keeping with that season.

Mrs. A. J. Cronke of St. Martins is with her parents for a time. Mr. Cronk also spent the week-end here. The W. M. S. of the Berwick Methodist Church were entertained at the home of Mrs. W. H. Harding of Friday last, when a very pleasant and profitable time was spent.

Mrs. T. S. McAuley sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

A piano duet, "The Graces," was skillfully executed by Mrs. Howard Patterson and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, after which a solo, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was rendered by Mrs. George Smith.

At this juncture the president, Mrs. J. E. McAuley, sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

A piano duet, "The Graces," was skillfully executed by Mrs. Howard Patterson and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, after which a solo, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was rendered by Mrs. George Smith.

At this juncture the president, Mrs. J. E. McAuley, sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

A piano duet, "The Graces," was skillfully executed by Mrs. Howard Patterson and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, after which a solo, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was rendered by Mrs. George Smith.

At this juncture the president, Mrs. J. E. McAuley, sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

A piano duet, "The Graces," was skillfully executed by Mrs. Howard Patterson and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, after which a solo, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was rendered by Mrs. George Smith.

At this juncture the president, Mrs. J. E. McAuley, sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

A piano duet, "The Graces," was skillfully executed by Mrs. Howard Patterson and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, after which a solo, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was rendered by Mrs. George Smith.

At this juncture the president, Mrs. J. E. McAuley, sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

A piano duet, "The Graces," was skillfully executed by Mrs. Howard Patterson and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, after which a solo, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was rendered by Mrs. George Smith.

At this juncture the president, Mrs. J. E. McAuley, sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

A piano duet, "The Graces," was skillfully executed by Mrs. Howard Patterson and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, after which a solo, "Let the Rest of the World Go By," was rendered by Mrs. George Smith.

At this juncture the president, Mrs. J. E. McAuley, sang a solo, "Anchored," in his usual good voice. A reading, entitled, "The Brakeman at Church," was well read by Miss Ophelia Fullerton, and brought out vividly the characteristics peculiar to the various churches, as they were read. A trainman who had tried each route to "Zionville."

able time was spent. At the close of the most elaborate tea was served by Mrs. Lester.

Before closing with the National Anthem, the president announced that the March meeting would be at the home of Mrs. George W. Gregg, and at that meeting a buttonhole contest, as a call, were visitors here this week with Mr. Gregg's mother at "Mountaindale."

On Friday evening of last week Mrs. Joseph Paries entertained at the Apohaqui House, in honor of the 15th birthday of her son, Master Roy Paries. The guests included about 20 sturdy lads of similar age, who enjoyed a hilarious evening in games and did justice to the dainties provided among which was a huge birthday cake, on which burned fifteen candles.

Rev. and Mrs. Lodge Gregg, who are enroute to Toronto from Sydney, where the Rev. gentleman has accepted not native of this place, they had resided here through so long a time, that their removal to St. John was generally regretted. Interment will be at Riverview Cemetery, a few miles down the river from the village, where there lies the remains of a little son. The date of the funeral is not yet known, but probably will be on Sunday.

A newly married man may be willing to attend his wife's church, but he continues to vote as he pleases.

The Apohaqui hockey team visited Norton on Tuesday evening and met the hockey team of that village for a game resulting in a score of 11 to 1 in favor of Apohaqui.

The residents of this village were deeply shocked and saddened on Thursday morning when news came of the death of Mr. Murray Gilchrist of St. John. "The late Mr. Gilchrist and family were residents of this village for 15 years and only last year moved to the city, and his sudden death will be sincerely mourned as an upright man whose kind and agreeable personality won him friends wherever he went and it is safe to say, "he hadn't an enemy." To the widow, daughter and sons, sincere sympathy goes out from the friends here. Though not native of this place, they had resided here through so long a time, that their removal to St. John was generally regretted. Interment will be at Riverview Cemetery, a few miles down the river from the village, where there lies the remains of a little son. The date of the funeral is not yet known, but probably will be on Sunday.

A newly married man may be willing to attend his wife's church, but he continues to vote as he pleases.

The Apohaqui hockey team visited Norton on Tuesday evening and met the hockey team of that village for a game resulting in a score of 11 to 1 in favor of Apohaqui.

The residents of this village were deeply shocked and saddened on Thursday morning when news came of the death of Mr. Murray Gilchrist of St. John. "The late Mr. Gilchrist and family were residents of this village for 15 years and only last year moved to the city, and his sudden death will be sincerely mourned as an upright man whose kind and agreeable personality won him friends wherever he went and it is safe to say, "he hadn't an enemy." To the widow, daughter and sons, sincere sympathy goes out from the friends here. Though not native of this place, they had resided here through so long a time, that their removal to St. John was generally regretted. Interment will be at Riverview Cemetery, a few miles down the river from the village, where there lies the remains of a little son. The date of the funeral is not yet known, but probably will be on Sunday.

A newly married man may be willing to attend his wife's church, but he continues to vote as he pleases.

The Apohaqui hockey team visited Norton on Tuesday evening and met the hockey team of that village for a game resulting in a score of 11 to 1 in favor of Apohaqui.

The residents of this village were deeply shocked and saddened on Thursday morning when news came of the death of Mr. Murray Gilchrist of St. John. "The late Mr. Gilchrist and family were residents of this village for 15 years and only last year moved to the city, and his sudden death will be sincerely mourned as an upright man whose kind and agreeable personality won him friends wherever he went and it is safe to say, "he hadn't an enemy." To the widow, daughter and sons, sincere sympathy goes out from the friends here. Though not native of this place, they had resided here through so long a time, that their removal to St. John was generally regretted. Interment will be at Riverview Cemetery, a few miles down the river from the village, where there lies the remains of a little son. The date of the funeral is not yet known, but probably will be on Sunday.

A newly married man may be willing to attend his wife's church, but he continues to vote as he pleases.

The Apohaqui hockey team visited Norton on Tuesday evening and met the hockey team of that village for a game resulting in a score of 11 to 1 in favor of Apohaqui.

The residents of this village were deeply shocked and saddened on Thursday morning when news came of the death of Mr. Murray Gilchrist of St. John. "The late Mr. Gilchrist and family were residents of this village for 15 years and only last year moved to the city, and his sudden death will be sincerely mourned as an upright man whose kind and agreeable personality won him friends wherever he went and it is safe to say, "he hadn't an enemy." To the widow, daughter and sons, sincere sympathy goes out from the friends here. Though not native of this place, they had resided here through so long a time, that their removal to St. John was generally regretted. Interment will be at Riverview Cemetery, a few miles down the river from the village, where there lies the remains of a little son. The date of the funeral is not yet known, but probably will be on Sunday.

A newly married man may be willing to attend his wife's church, but he continues to vote as he pleases.

The Apohaqui hockey team visited Norton on Tuesday evening and met the hockey team of that village for a game resulting in a score of 11 to 1 in favor of Apohaqui.

The residents of this village were deeply shocked and saddened on Thursday morning when news came of the death of Mr. Murray Gilchrist of St. John. "The late Mr. Gilchrist and family were residents of this village for 15 years and only last year moved to the city, and his sudden death will be sincerely mourned as an upright man whose kind and agreeable personality won him friends wherever he went and it is safe to say, "he hadn't an enemy." To the widow, daughter and sons, sincere sympathy goes out from the friends here. Though not native of this place, they had resided here through so long a time, that their removal to St. John was generally regretted. Interment will be at Riverview Cemetery, a few miles down the river from the village, where there lies the remains of a little son. The date of the funeral is not yet known, but probably will be on Sunday.

A newly married man may be willing to attend his wife's church, but he continues to vote as he pleases.

The Apohaqui hockey team visited Norton on Tuesday evening and met the hockey team of that village for a game resulting in a score of 11 to 1 in favor of Apohaqui.