"Wales and Lloyd George" furnished a wealth of interesting material for discussion. The programme opened with the singing of the Welsh National Anthem, after which Mrs. Beverly Trilles read a paper on "South Wales," prepared by Mrs. George Black, P. R. G. S., of Vancouver, whose overseas work during the war took her to the mining district of South Wales, where she lectured on "Canada," and especially the Yukon Territory, illustrated by lantern views. Mrs. Black's account of her sojourn in Wales, as read by Mrs. Trilles, gave a vivid picture of conditions in the Welsh mining districts, the home life and mental outlook of the miners. The reading of the paper above referred to was much appreciated by the members of the club. Prior to the reading of the paper, Mrs. A. H. McCready told of a very pleasant and interesting day spent with Mrs. Black at her summer home in Vancouver. On that occasion Mrs. Black had loaned this interesting paper. Mrs. Line, who has been many times in Wales, added to the interest of the evening by singing several Welsh songs. Mrs. DesBarres accompanied. Mrs. Line was elected a member of the club, in the absence of Miss Tweedie, whose resignation was deeply regretted. The absence through illness of Mrs. S. W. Hinton and Mrs. Mackenzie was sympathetically referred to by Mrs. Palmer.

The tea and sale held in the Presbyterian Hall, Thursday evening, proved very successful, over $200 being realized. A substantial and appetizing tea was served by the ladies of the congregation, to whom much credit is due for the success of the whole affair.
