LONDON, Jan. 24.

A severe storm began yesterday evening, lasted all night, raging with great violence. Rain poured in torrents, flooding the lower portion of the city.

THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING was damaged, water penetrating the roof in several places, injuring the decorations and furniture. The weather reports show the storm extended throughout the British Isles, and reached some portions of the Continent.

TELEGRAPH WIRES are prostrated in various directions; communication is interrupted in the channel, and on the Irish coast the storm was excessively severe.

Serious disasters to shipping are feared, although partly owing to the disappearance before it, as to the methods and progress of inebriate reform in their country.

MADRID, Jan. 24.

The defeat of Herrera for President of the Lower House of Cortes has decided the FAIR OF THE PRESENT CABINET.

At the first sitting of the Cortes, during the proceedings preliminary to organization, it became evident that the temper of the House was against the present Government, and that the ministerial candidate for the Chair had little chance of success.

On a test vote the Opposition showed itself largely in the majority, and Herrera's defeat in the regular election is inevitable.

For this SAGASTA did not wait. He immediately visited the King and informed him that the vote in the Cortes left him but two alternatives—dissolution of the Cortes or resignation of the Ministry.

The latter course was decided upon. Sagasta and the President of the Ministry were requested to retain their portfolios until some result was reached.

By the King's order, Sagasta is not in session.

To-morrow the regular Election for President will be held.
