The Sessions and the Common Council have an evil habit of delaying their bills to the last minute, when they are either passed without discussion or stuck out simply because St. John members are not unanimous in favor of them. Now is the time to prepare and forward to the Assessor's Office any St. John member opposes a bill sent to the House early in the session, that time for its friends to have it fully discussed, so that members from other Comities may vote on its merits. When there is no time for discussion and inquiry members will vote in favor of it simply because the majority are in favor of it. The representatives of the constituency to be affected by it. Every good bill—every bill that ought to be passed—every bill that would be an advantage to the people—should be forwarded at once, and any other kind should not be prepared at all.

The Assessor's Office has been closed for some time, and it is reported that the Assessor, Mr. W. F. Brown, has been appointed to the office of the Assessor of the County of Saint John. Mr. Brown has been in the Assessor's Office for some time, and it is reported that he has been very successful in his work. The law makers at Fredericton got so far in the present session of the Legislature, and accepted Mr. Smith's offer to speak their proceedings satisfactorily. Many of those who have distinguished themselves by their stern opposition to the custom of giving $50 or so to reporters, voted to accept Mr. Smith's offer. They feared they would not be sufficiently popular. The reports were long enough. If a member would like to make a big speech or intends making a big speech, or if he has made a big speech, and desires that the public should have the benefit of it, all he has got to do is to write it out, and hand it to the printer. It is not an advertisement, and it is not a contribution to the printer. It is an advertisement, and it is not a contribution to the printer. It is an advertisement, and it is not a contribution to the printer.

We hope a moderate compromise school measure may be offered in the Assembly by the dissatisfied party, and assisted in his passage by the Government. This was the intention of the Government, and it is believed that the Government will be assisted in its passage by the dissatisfied party. Mr. Bunting Doesn't Know the Verdict at Haligonian.
To the Editor of the Tribune:
Sir: Under the caption—'A Costly Mistake'—an article appeared in your issue of the 14th inst., which, to the reader, might convey an impression that the Assessor's Office is inclined to take a stronger line.
