

indebted to the Club, and after notice and a default of two calendar months further, it shall be the duty of the Committee to suspend him from being a member, and he shall thereupon lose all the privileges of a member and shall not be entitled to be admitted upon the premises unless restored as herein-after mentioned.

XXII.

Any person posted as being indebted to the Club shall not be entitled to propose or second, or to continue as the proposer or seconder, of any candidate, nor to introduce any stranger under Section XX.

XXIII.

In case the conduct of any member, either in or out of the Club house, shall, in the opinion of the Committee, be injurious to the character or interests of the Club, the Committee may reprimand, fine or suspend temporarily such member as a majority of the Committee may see fit, or they are empowered to recommend such member to resign; provided that no such recommendation shall be sent to any member unless the same shall have been agreed to by two-thirds of the members of the whole Committee at a meeting of the Committee specially summoned for that purpose. And if such members do not resign within the space of one calendar month from the notification of such recommendation of the Committee it shall be the duty of the Committee to suspend him. Provided, also, that if the Committeemen present at such
