

1653—Girl's Dress, with or without Pockets, and with Sleeve in Either of Two Lengths.—Striped seersucker and white pique are here combined. Gingham, percale, galatea, repp, poplin, linen or linene are also nice for this model. The dress is closed above the belt, but the closing may be finished to the hem. The sleeve in wrist length has a neat band cuff. The short sleeve has a smart turnback cuff. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 2, 4, 6 and 8 years. It requires 2 1/4 yards of 44-inch material for a 4-year size. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

1639—A Dainty Dress for Party or Best Wear.—Blue batiste embroidered with white dots is here illustrated. The model is exceedingly becoming and effective. The waist portions are in Empire style, with the skirt portions gathered or plaited. The bolero is shaped in attractive outline. The sleeve may be in wrist

Jack was to go on, always conquering, in the great battles of life.

Dazed, John Brooks turned away, and entered his library. He closed and locked the door. "He can't die!" he said, doggedly. "I can't let him die!" He had a curious feeling that there was something he could do about it, if he could only collect himself and think clearly. He, too, was accustomed to conquer whatever opposed him.

"All that medical skill can do has been done," he said to himself. "Is there anything else?"

Of course there was! Had he not known all his life that there is a God in Israel? A God to Whom nothing is impossible? What could be more natural or right than that he should ask God to save his boy, whose life the world must surely need? He would pray as the saints of old prayed, with invincible determination; with a per-length, finished with a band cuff, or in shaped kimono style at elbow length. For low neck effect, the waist could be cut out on a line with the bolero. The pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 4, 6, 8 and 10 years. Size 6 requires 3 1/8 yards of 44-inch material, with 1 1/8 yard of 27-inch material for the bolero and collar. A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

"De Profundis"

"To speak frankly, the symptoms at the crisis approaches are not as favorable as I had hoped for."

It was hard for John Brooks to realize that the great specialist was speaking of Jack—Jack, his first-born, whom he had watched through babyhood and boyhood, and through love of whom he had been brought to a new sense of God's goodness; Jack, who had been his pride all these twenty years, and in whom were centered his dearest hopes for the future. Jack had been sick before, but he had always thrown off sickness in the same easy, masterful way in which he had conquered everything else that he had had to face. To his father, it had seemed certain that sistence that could not be denied, and God would grant his prayer.

He fell upon his knees. But before he could frame the words, he seemed to hear a Voice speaking. He listened.

"Your prayer is granted. Your son's life will be spared. But I had a different future for him. There is work elsewhere that he can do. There are dangers threatening here that he can never avoid. There are heights elsewhere that he would have reached. I had my plan. You may now have yours."

John Brooks rose trembling from his knees. "Not my will," he sobbed, "dear God, not mine!" Out in the hall the physician came from the sick-room to meet him.

"It's all right," the doctor whispered, as he grasped the father's hand.

"It's always all right!" said John Brooks from his heart.

It is not generally known that a layer of sliced onions placed on the top of a roast of beef and allowed to cook there will give a delicious flavor to the meat, while their distinctive flavor will not be noticeable.

To Make Folks Love Oats Better

To Revel in This Vim-Food

This is to mothers who are anxious to make a dainty of this energizing oat.

The way is this: Get the large, white luscious flakes. Get them unmixed with smaller flakes, for little oats lack flavor.

Serve none but Quaker Oats.

On some oats Nature lavishes enjoyments. Some oats in the same field she neglects.

We pick out those favored oats for Quaker, discarding all the rest. Only ten pounds are obtained from a bushel. It is worth the pains to get these queen oats. It brings a double welcome to this spirit-giving dish.

And you pay no extra price.

Quaker Oats

All the Little Grains Omitted

Some things we know, and some we don't know, about oats.

But we don't know why they so excel in vim-producing power.

We know they are rich in phosphorus and lecithin, the brain and nerve constituents.

In this respect for all the ages, oats have stood supreme. And oats will always be the king food where vitality is prized.

We know they are 75 per cent energy food, and 15 per cent nitrogenous. And that two per cent is mineral food we need.

That's why we urge this method of making oats delightful.
