Basketball

Yeoman center John Christensen has amassed 79 rebounds in 10 games (a 7.9 average) to place him fifth in the OUA East Division.

Hockey

Yeoman right winger Don McLaren is seventh in the OUA's point total race with 23 goals and 13 assists for 36 points. Brian Gray a York center is only two points back of McLaren with 11 goals and 23 assists.

Volleyball

The York Yeomen took on the Queen's Golden Gaels in a semi-final match last night at Tait. The score was unavailable at press time. The sixth ranked Yeomen were odds on favorites to win. At last glance the York Yeowomen are number three in the national polls and are expected to win the OWIAA crown.

Skiing

Queen's University and the University of Waterloo split top honors at the Nordic Ski Championships at Sudbury. Queen's took first place in the men's overall standings, followed by host Laurentian and Western. Waterloo won the top prize in the women's competition, their fifth consecutive crown. Queen's and Ottawa followed respectively. Individually, Reino Keski-Salmi of Laurentian won the men's 15-kilometer race while Ottawa's Janet Lumb captured the women's 10-kilometer spring. Laurentian won the men's 15k relay race, while on the women's side Waterloo topped their competition in the relay.

Squash

The Western Mustangs have won their second consecutive squash championship. Toronto Varsity Blues and Waterloo Warriors finished second and third respectively at the tournament.

Fencing

The OUA Fencing Championships were held last weekend at Carleton University. Three York fencers competed, all in their first ever OUA final. Warren Kotler finished fourth and Matt Pinder placed ninth in the individual sabre competition. In the individual foil event Max Ng placed ninth. All three of these fencers will be returning next year.

Basketball

A charity basketball game between the Peel Regional Police Team and the Toronto Argonaut Football Club will be played this Friday night at 8:00 in the Tait gym. Admission is three dollars and proceeds will go to the Dwayne Piukkala Memorial Fund. Tickets will be available at the door. Argo Sunshine girls will be there as well.

Swimming

York finished 10th overall in the OWIAA swimming championships. Helena Sullivan placed ninth in the 50-meter breaststroke and Catherine Maugeri finished ninth in the 50-meter butterfly. The team of Maugeri, Marinoff, Teskey and Phelps came in eighth in the 400-meter freestyle relay. The competition was won by U of T with 495 points while York compiled a score of 45 points.

Next year in Jerusalem.

For only $600.

A rich experience for very little money. The Jerusalem Fellowship is offering six weeks of study and travel in Jerusalem and throughout the Holy Land, for only $600 including roundtrip airfare. You will learn about the Jewish way in love and marriage, gain the knowledge to combat assimilation, and to fight cults and Arab propaganda on campus. It's an experience that will continue to enrich your life for many years.

How do I become one of the selected few? Twenty people will qualify and be selected to participate.

We're looking for leaders. People who are enthusiastic and motivated. People who want to learn and who look for challenges.

The trip will leave on June 3, 1985 and the deadline for applications for this trip is March 15.

To obtain an application for call 783-5504 or write The Jerusalem Fellowship, 2949 Bathurst St., Basement Ste., Toronto, Ont. M6B 3B2

Striving for leadership in the Jewish community. Our community must continue to develop concerned leadership for the future. Part of that process is a solid understanding of our Jewish Heritage.
