In closing the first half of the concert the band played Tschaikowsky's very difficult "1812 Overture," and played it very well.

During the intermission the second part of the film "Battle of Britain" was shown. This authentic picture of the British Government, taken during the great Blitz of London, was rather frightening, but was an excellent reminder of how those close to the battle fronts have suffered, yet remained unbeaten.

The band opened the second half with the fast, peppy "Star Spangled Banner." Then came a complete change of tempo with the exquisite Strauss Waltz—"Stories from Vienna Forest." The band then swung into the rollicking "Turkey in the Straw," at the finish of which Director Hunt had the bandsmen on their feet, with instruments pointing high, going full out. Not forgetting the heroes of twenty-five years ago, the band played "Over There," a medley of the fine old tunes of 1914-7

Officer Bruce Findlay, Flying Acting Flight Sergeant—O'Brien, Gravenhurst Rotary Squadron, Air Commanding Officer of the No. 281 Cadets of Canada, then spoke briefly of the Squadron's activities to date. Acting Orderly Corporal-Girard, Pilot Officer James Matthews, Officer Commanding the Band of No. r S.F.T.S., Camp Borden, was Acting Flight Sergeant — Sugg, No. 1 S.F.T.S., Camp Borden, was E. S. Acting Orderly Sergeant-Girard, members of the band accepted the Acting Orderly Corporal — Gra- grateful thanks of the Gravenhurst ham, J. P.

Another favorite, Ferde Grofe's "On the Trail," as a special concession by P.O. Matthews, was played. In a fitting finale, L.A.C. Sturgess Airman's Prayer," sang "The accompanied by the band. Incidentally the band arrangement of "The Airman's Prayer" was made by Ken. Bray, a former resident of Port Carling, who taught music in Medora and Wood schools.

The visit of the Band of No. S.F.T.S., Camp Borden, was an outstanding event for the Town of Gravenhurst. It was not only the Rotary Club and the Air Cadets who were grateful but the whole town as well. In thanking the members of the band, and congratulating its officers who made the concert possible, one could not forget Flight-Sergeant Cliff Hunt, the director, who has done a magnificent job in forging ogether such a fine band.
