Ottawa, 6th February, 1914.

Sir,-

On the 22nd December the Department wrote requesting you to account for the amount ($300.00) advanced you in July and September wherewith to defray travelling expenses.. You were asked to give the matter prompt attention.. I shall be glad to receive an explanation as to why the regulations in this matter have not been carried into effect. I regret to say that the Department will be constrained to cease making advances, if the regulations in regard to account for the same are not observed.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.

Glen Campbell, Esq.,
Chief Inspector of Indian Agencies,
Winnipeg, Man.

Dept. of Indian & Northern Affairs, Letterbook,
