

spent by Christian men in Brooklyn for tobacco, and I will support three orphan asylums as well and as grandly as the three great orphan asylums already established. Put into my hand the money spent by the Christians of America for tobacco, and I will clothe, shelter and feed all the suffering poor of the continent." It is a fact, that as a Church we spend at least two or three million dollars more for tobacco than for the extension of the Gospel. The lowest estimate is $5,000,000 for tobacco; the highest for missions, $8,000,000. Ah, yes, we are guilty. In the face of these things we ask, Is it a small matter that we give this thing place among us?
