

the City to his home among the trees, will rise up and call him blessed who planted the old garden so many years ago.

"For the side ground you are to fill them with a variety of alleys : private, to give a full shade some of them, wheresoever the sun be,"—Lord Bacon.

Press of The Winnipeg Telegram