

FARLTON.

A small village in the township of Esquesing, situated on the stage road leading from Milton to Stewarttown, where Mr. John Irvin saws about twelve million shingles daily of best quality, and Mr. Geo. Cook has a large steam saw mill cutting lumber and lath. population fifty.

Alphabetical List of Professions, Trades, &c.

Irwin, John, sawed shingle of best material.

COOK, GEO., prop steam saw and lath mill, manufacturer of reaping machines.

GEORGETOWN.

An Incorporated Village in the Township of Esquesing, situated on the River Credit, and on the line of the Grand Trunk Railway, 12 miles from Milton, the County Town, 28 from Toronto, and 37 from Hamilton. The village contains seven or eight churches, good schools, a number of well filled stores, and five hotels. Georgetown contains several large manufacturing establishments; amongst the most important of which the following may be mentioned, viz:—That of Messrs. Wm. Barber & Bros who are extensively engaged in the manufacture of every description of book, writing, printing, manilla and wrapping papers, their premises occupy an area of about one acre of ground, 40 hands are employed, and water power used in propelling the machinery; this establishment was commenced in 1854. They also carry on wool carding and fulling.

Mr. P. W. Dayfoot is very largely engaged in the manufacture of boot and shoes, and leather. The premises are 90 by 40 feet, three stories high. One hundred hands are here employed, and about sixty thousand dollars worth of boots and shoes are turned out annually.

Messrs. J. & M. Maw, proprietors of the Georgetown steam foundry and machine works, employ in this branch of industry about 15 hands, and an engine of 16 horse power, stoves, agricultural implements, mill gearing and castings of every kind are here turned out.