

WILLIAM BUELL,

Printer, Bookseller, and Stationer,

Is prepared to execute all orders in the Printing line, with neatness & despatch, at his Office, Main St., Brockville. He keeps for sale, all kinds of Law Blanks in general use, printed on good Paper and well executed.

Most kinds of SCHOOL BOOKS, for sale; together with Bibles, Testaments, Prayer Books, Sunday School and Toy Books; a general assortment of Scientific and Miscellaneous Books, the stock being much enlarged.

An assortment of cheap publications; Piano Forte and Flute Music; Prints in variety; Phrenological and other Busts; Accordians, and many other articles.

The Irish National School Books;

And other Books recommended to be used in Common Schools, constantly on hand.

Paper

Of many kinds and qualities; various articles of Stationery; Pen Knives, Folders, Sealing Wax, Inks, Fancy Articles, Jewelry, &c., all sold low for Cash.

Blank Books

Of various kinds and qualities, manufactured and kept constantly on hand and for sale.

Mavor's Spelling Book & English Readers,

Cobb's Introduction and Readers,

Nos. 1, 2, & 3, printed on good paper from Stereotype Plates, always on hand.

Moffat's Phoenix Bitters & Life Pills.

A large consignment of these valuable medicines have been recently received, direct from the original manufacturer, and warranted genuine. The subscriber, as Agent, has made such arrangements with the proprietor as will enable him to supply dealers with these articles on favorable and advantageous terms.

WILLIAM BUELL.

Brockville, November 20, 1848.

PRINTING INK.--A Few kegs on hand for sale.